

TITLE 1:
GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 414. Commonwealth Hall of Fame: Nomination Categories.

The commission shall accept nominations of persons for induction into the “Commonwealth Hall of Fame” who have excelled or made extraordinary and meritorious contributions to the Commonwealth in their fields of endeavor from any of the following categories:

- (a) Medicine and health;
- (b) Youth (persons under 25 years of age);
- (c) Senior citizens (persons 55 years of age and over);
- (d) Business, commerce, tourism and economic development;
- (e) Arts and sciences;
- (f) Athletics and sports;
- (g) Law and government;
- (h) Education and training;
- (i) Community, civic and religious affairs;
- (j) Chamorro and Carolinian languages and cultural affairs;
- (k) Farmers and fishermen;
- (l) Adults (persons 26 years through 54 years of age); and
- (m) Other worthy causes or persons as determined by the commission.

Source: PL 3-46, § 7.

Commission Comment: See the comment to 1 CMC § 411.