

TITLE 10: LOCAL LAWS
DIVISION 3: THIRD SENATORIAL DISTRICT (SAIPAN, ETC.)

§ 30512. Abatement of Public Nuisances.

If, subsequent to the expiration of a right to appeal to the Commonwealth Zoning Board under this Chapter, the owner has failed to abate a nuisance upon order from the Administrator, or if the owner has failed to abate the nuisance after receiving an order from the Zoning Board, the Commonwealth may abate the nuisance and recoup the costs from the owner. Any costs incurred, including the costs of hiring a private contractor, cost of using Commonwealth equipment and personnel, administrative costs, court costs, and other documented costs for the abatement of the nuisance shall be itemized and charged to the owner of the property.
