

TITLE 4: ECONOMIC RESOURCES
DIVISION 8: UTILITIES

§ 8210. Damage; Cost of Repairing.

Any person who damages a utility line is liable for the payment of all costs incurred by the operator to restore the utility to its original condition. Any person who duly notifies the operator as provided in 4 CMC § 8205 shall not be liable to the operator for any damages or civil penalties, provided, however, that the excavation or demolition takes place at least seven days after the acknowledgment of receipt of the notification by the operator.
