

TITLE 6: CRIMES AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 202. Accessory After the Fact.

Every person who, knowing that an offense against the Commonwealth has been committed, receives, relieves, comforts, or assists the offender in order to hinder or prevent the offender's apprehension, trial, or punishment, is an accessory after the fact. An accessory after the fact may be imprisoned not more than one-half the maximum term of imprisonment or fined not more than one-half the maximum fine prescribed for punishment of the principal, or both; or if the principal is punishable by life imprisonment, the accessory may be imprisoned not more than 10 years.
