

TITLE 6: CRIMES AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURES
DIVISION 3: MISCELLANEOUS OFFENSES

§ 3101. Disturbing the Peace.

(a) A person commits the offense of disturbing the peace if he or she unlawfully and willfully does any act which unreasonably annoys or disturbs another person so that the other person is deprived of his or her right to peace and quiet, or which provokes a breach of the peace.

(b) A person convicted of disturbing the peace may be punished by imprisonment for not more than six months.

Source: PL 3-71, § 1 (§ 461).