

TITLE 6: CRIMES AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
DIVISION 6: CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

§ 6905. Extradition of Person Imprisoned or Awaiting Trial in a State.

When it is desired to have returned to the Commonwealth a person charged in the Commonwealth with a crime and that person is imprisoned or is held under criminal proceedings then pending against him in a state, the Governor may agree with the executive authority of that state for the extradition of the person before the conclusion of the proceedings or his or her term of sentence in that state, upon condition that the person be returned to the state at the expense of the Commonwealth as soon as the prosecution in the Commonwealth is terminated.
