

TITLE 7: CIVIL PROCEDURE
DIVISION 1: JURISDICTION AND PROCESS

§ 1304. Setting Aside Judgment.

Any defendant not so personally notified may at any time within one year after final judgment enter an appearance and the court shall thereupon set aside the judgment and permit the defendant to plead, on payment of such costs as the court deems best; provided, however, that this right does not extend to decrees of annulment, divorce or adoption.

Source: 6 TTC § 54.