

TITLE 1:
GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 232. Commonwealth Flower.

“Flores mayo,” known in the English language as “plumeria” and scientifically known as Plumeria acuminata, is hereby declared to be the official flower of the Commonwealth.

Source: PL 1-25, § 2, modified.

Commission Comment: PL 1-25 took effect March 13, 1979. According to PL 1-25, § 1: “The purpose of this act is to declare the official flower of the Northern Mariana Islands, to give such flower a special and honorable recognition, to promote the planting and growth thereof, and to encourage its use during special occasions or celebrations.”