

TITLE 1: GOVERNMENT
DIVISION 6: ELECTIONS

§ 6507. Postponement of Election.

If for serious cause resulting from any natural phenomena, act of God, or a public enemy, it becomes reasonably impossible to hold any election duly scheduled in the Commonwealth as a whole or in any senatorial or election district, or mayoral island or islands, the Governor may postpone any such election wherein for such time as it any deem necessary, but in no event shall postponement exceed thirty (30) days from the date when such election should have been held.
