

TITLE 7: CIVIL PROCEDURE
DIVISION 2: ACTIONS AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

§ 2923. Limitation of Compensation in Actions for Wrongful Death.

In an action seeking to recover damages for wrongful death of a decedent, all persons entitled to recover damages for wrongful death shall be entitled to jointly assert a claim for non-economic damages. However, in no such action shall the amount of damages for all non-economic losses jointly exceed three-hundred-thousand dollars.

Source: PL 14-46, § 3 (2903), modified.

Commission Comment: The Commission deleted figures that were a repetition of words in the above section pursuant to its authority by 1 CMC § 3806(e).