

TITLE 8: FAMILY LAW AND PROBATE
DIVISION 1: DOMESTICS RELATIONS

§ 19309. Comparison of Information and Notice of Match.

(a) As soon as practicable after the enactment of this section, the Office shall, either directly or by contract, conduct automated comparisons of the social security numbers reported by employers pursuant to this Article and the social security numbers appearing in the records of the CNMI's case registry.

(b) When an information comparison conducted pursuant to 8 CMC § 19309(a) reveals a match with respect to the social security number of an individual required to provide support under a support order, the case registry in the CNMI child support enforcement system shall be automatically updated with the information in the Directory of New Hires.
