

TITLE 8: FAMILY LAW AND PROBATE
DIVISION 2: PROBATE LAW AND PROCEDURE

§ 2314. Joint or Mutual Wills.

A joint or mutual will does not create a presumption of a contract not to revoke the will. A contract to make a will or devise, or not to revoke a will or devise, or to die intestate, can only be established by:

- (a) Provisions of a will stating material provisions of the contract;
- (b) An express reference in a will to a contract and extrinsic evidence proving the terms of the contract; or
- (c) A writing signed by the decedent evidencing the contract.

Source: PL 3-106, ch. 3, § 14.