§ 175-10.1-550 Gross Revenue Computations.

(a) For each table game, gross revenue equals the closing table game bankroll plus credit slips for cash, chips, tokens, or personal/payroll checks returned to the casino cage, plus drop, less opening table game bankroll, fills to the table, money transfers issued from the game through the use of a cashless wagering system.

(b) For each slot machine, gross revenue equals drop less fills to the machine and jackpot payouts. Additionally, the initial hopper load is not a fill and does not affect gross revenue. The difference between the initial hopper load and the total amount that is in the hopper at the end of the licensee’s fiscal year must be adjusted accordingly as an addition to or subtraction from the drop for that year. If a Casino Gaming Licensee does not make such adjustments, or makes inaccurate adjustments, the Divisions of Audit and Compliance may compute an estimated total amount in the slot machine hoppers and may make reasonable adjustments to gross revenue during the course of an audit.

(c) For each counter game, gross revenue equals:
   1. The counter games write on events or games that occur during the month or will occur in subsequent months, less counter games payout during the month (“cash basis”); or
   2. Counter games write on events or games that occur during the counter games write plus money, not previously included in gross revenue that was accepted by the licensee in previous months on events or games occurring during the month, less counter games payouts during the month ("modified accrual basis") to patrons on winning wagers.

(d) For each card game and any other game in which the licensee is not a party to a wager, gross revenue equals all money received by the Casino Gaming Licensee as compensation for conducting the game.

(e) In computing gross revenue for a slot machines, keno and bingo, the actual cost to the Casino Gaming Licensee, its agent or employee, or a person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the licensee, of any personal property distributed as losses to patrons may be deducted from winnings (other than costs of travel, lodging, services, food, and beverages) if the licensee maintains detailed documents supporting the deduction.

(f) If the Casino Gaming Licensee provides periodic payments to satisfy a payout resulting from a wager, the initial installment payment when paid and the actual cost of a payment plan approved by the Commission and funded by the licensee may be deducted from winnings. For any funding method which merely guarantees the licensee's performance and under which the licensee makes payments directly out of cash flow (e.g., irrevocable letters of credits, surety bonds, or other similar methods), the licensee may only deduct such payments when paid to the patron.

(g) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall not exclude money paid out on wagers that are knowingly accepted by the licensee in violation of the Commonwealth Code or these regulations from gross revenue.

(h) If in any month the amount of Casino Gross gaming Revenue is less than zero dollars ($0.00), the licensee may deduct the excess in the succeeding months, until the loss is fully offset against Casino Gross Gaming Revenue.

(i) Payout receipts and wagering vouchers issued at a game or gaming device, shall be deducted from gross revenue as jackpot payouts in the month the receipts or vouchers are issued by the game or gaming device. Payout receipts and wagering vouchers deducted from gross revenue that are not redeemed within sixty (60) days of issuance shall be included in gross revenue. An unredeemed payout receipt or wagering voucher previously included in gross revenue may be deducted from gross revenue in the month redeemed. For purposes of this section, the term "slot machine" means a gaming device for which gross revenue is calculated pursuant to the method described under section (b) above. Such receipts and wagering vouchers shall be deemed expired if not redeemed on or before the expiration date printed on the payout receipt or wagering voucher or within one hundred eighty (180) days of issuance, whichever period is less. Licensees may redeem expired receipts and wagering vouchers in their sole discretion but may not deduct amounts paid out from gross revenue.

(j) A record of all expired payout receipts and wagering vouchers shall be created.
and maintained in accordance with the record keeping requirements set forth by the Commission.

(j) Any amounts paid or rebated to players or patrons in the form of "comps", commissions or the like are a cost of doing business and shall not be deducted from gross revenue.

§ 175-10.1-555 Uncollected Baccarat Commissions.

(a) If the Casino Gaming Licensee does not collect baccarat commissions due from a patron at the conclusion of play and elects to waive payment, such action must be authorized and documented in accordance with subsection (b) hereof. The uncollected baccarat commission must still be included in gross revenue computations.

(b) Concurrently with the decision to not collect the baccarat commission, the licensee must record, in such manner and using such preprinted, pre-numbered forms as the Commission has approved:

1. Date, shift and time the licensee determined to not collect the baccarat commission;
2. The amount of the baccarat commission not collected;
3. The baccarat table number;
4. Patron name, if known;
5. The dealer's signature; and

(f) Failure to comply with these regulations is an unsuitable method of operation.

§ 175-10.1-560 Minimum Requirements.

(a) The Commission may adopt or revise a bankroll formula that specifies the minimum bankroll requirements applicable to the Casino Gaming Licensee, along with instructions for computing available bankroll. The formula adopted by the Commission may require the licensee to maintain a number of days of cash on hand, utilize a debt-to-service ratio, or utilize any other ratio the Commission deems fit.
(b) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall maintain in accordance with the bankroll formula adopted by the Commission pursuant to the requirements of this section, cash or cash equivalents in an amount sufficient to reasonably protect the licensee’s patrons against defaults in gaming debts owed by the licensee. If at any time the licensee’s available cash or cash equivalents should be less than the amount required by this section, the licensee shall immediately notify the Commission of this deficiency and shall also detail the means by which the licensee shall comply with the minimum bankroll requirements. Failure to maintain the minimum bankroll required by this section or failure to notify the Commission as required by this section, is an unsuitable method of operation.

(c) Records reflecting accurate, monthly computations of bankroll requirements and actual bankroll available shall be maintained by the Casino Gaming Licensee, and mailed to the Commission monthly.

(d) The casino licensee shall maintain an unencumbered irrevocable letter of credit from a financial institution acceptable to the Commission in the amount of Fifteen Million Dollars ($15,000,000.00), or some other higher amount required by the Commission, to ensure payment to winning players.

§ 175-10.1-1201  General Description of Fees and Deposit Policy
§ 175-10.1-1205  License Renewal General Provisions
§ 175-10.1-1210  Payment of Fees and Deposits
§ 175-10.1-1215  Special Fee Assessments for Other Purpose
§ 175-10.1-1220  No Proration of Fees
§ 175-10.1-1225  Schedule of Fees

§ 175-10.1-1201  General Description of Fees and Deposit Policy.

(a) The Commission shall establish, fees for the application issuance and renewal of all licenses pursuant to the Act.

(b) The differing treatment of these license categories reflects a recognition and judgment that casino applicants and licensees benefit directly or indirectly from all aspects of the regulatory process and are best suited to bear the largest share of the costs incurred by the Commission in implementing that process. Moreover, the actual cost of investigation and considering applications for individual employee licenses and casino service provider licenses may exceed the amount which those applicants and licensees may fairly be required to pay as fees. The fee structure established by these rules and regulations is designed to respond to these policies and problems.

(c) To the extent reasonably possible, each applicant or licensee should pay the investigatory or regulatory costs attributable to their application or license.

(d) Unless otherwise specifically exempted by the Commission, all application fees are fully earned when received by the Commonwealth Treasury or the Commission. The withdrawal of the application by the applicant or the denial of the license by the Commission is not grounds for a rebate of any portion of any application fee.

§ 175-10.1-1205  License Renewal General Provisions.

(a) All classes of gaming licenses, except the Casino License issued by the Lottery Commission which remains in force until modified, cancelled, suspended, or surrendered pursuant to the Act or these Regulations, are subject to renewal as provided herein. All classes of gaming licenses, other than the Casino License issued by the Lottery Commission, must be renewed before the expiration of the current license. This requirement does not guarantee renewal and no holder of a license has a property right in the renewal thereof.

(b) Any license, other than a casino license, which is not renewed prior to expiration, will be considered as forfeited. Reinstatement of such a forfeited license will require processing as a new license application including payment of the proper fees associated with initial license issuance as promulgated herein.

§ 175-10.1-1210 Payment of Fees and Deposits.

(a) No application shall be accepted for filing or processed by the Commission except upon the proper and timely payment of all required fees and deposits in accordance with these Regulations. Any portion of an application fee or deposit which is incurred or determined after the filing of the application or which estimated in accordance with this subchapter shall be payable upon demand made by the Commission. Failure to promptly remit any amount so demanded shall be deemed a failure to timely pay the required fee unless the Commission finds cause to permit an extension of time in which to remit the demanded amount.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the Act and these Regulations, failure to timely remit fees, or deposits required under this subchapter shall result in suspension of the affected license or application until such time as the full amount of such fee or deposit is paid unless the Commission finds cause to permit extension of time in which to remit the amount due. Except as otherwise provided, failure to remit full amount of a fee or deposit required under this section within thirty calendar days of the date such fee becomes due shall result in permanent forfeiture of the affected license or application unless the licensee or applicant shall show cause for non-forfeiture acceptable to the Commission.

(c) The Annual License Fee required by 175-10.1-610 shall be paid by check made payable to the "CNMI Treasurer" with a notation in the "Memo" area listing the fee being paid, and mailed to the Commonwealth's Department of Finance. No check so presented shall be deemed payment until the Commission shall be satisfied that sufficient funds are contained in the account against which it is drawn. An original receipt must be forwarded to the Commission promptly via U.S. Mail. Nothing herein prevents the Commission from receiving payment reports from the Department of Finance; however such reports do not alleviate the payor's responsibility to forward the original receipt to the Commission.

(d) All other fees shall be paid by check made payable to the "CNMI Treasurer" with a notation in the "Memo" area listing the fee being paid, and mailed to the Commission. No check so presented shall be deemed payment until the Commission shall be satisfied that sufficient funds are contained in the account against which it is drawn.

(e) The Commission may provide for wire transfer of any amount owed pursuant to the Act or these Regulations.

§ 175-10.1-1215 Special Fee Assessments for Other Purpose. All investigation fees required of the casino licensee, persons who have ownership of the entity which owns or controls the casino licensee, potential transferees, service providers, vendors, junket operators, casino key employees, and casino employee must be shouldered by the applicant or employer of the applicant. In cases where further investigation is warranted, the Commission may require additional funds for the completion of the investigation process. The Commission may impose other additional fees as it deems necessary.

§ 175-10.1-1220 No Proration of Fees. Where fees are to be paid annually (whether by calendar or) the Commission shall not pro-rate any fees for the remainder of the year based on when the fee was incurred.

§ 175-10.1-1225 Schedule of Fees.

10. The signature of the petitioner or his legal representative; and

(a) It is the policy of the Commission to require that all establishments wherein gaming is conducted in this Commonwealth be operated in a manner suitable to protect the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the inhabitants of the Northern Mariana Islands.

(b) Responsibility for the employment and maintenance of suitable methods of operation rests with the licensee, and willful or persistent use or toleration of methods of operation deemed unsuitable will constitute grounds for license revocation or other disciplinary action.

§ 175-10.1-1805 Grounds for Disciplinary Action.

(a) The Commission deems any activity on the part of the Casino Gaming Licensee, its agents or employees, that is inimical to the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the people of the Commonwealth, or that would reflect or tend to reflect discredit upon the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands or the gaming industry, to be an unsuitable method of operation and shall be grounds for disciplinary action by the Commission in accordance with the Act and the Regulations.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following acts or omissions, in addition to any other act or omission deemed an unsuitable method by the Commission, may be determined to be unsuitable methods of operation:

1. Failure to exercise discretion and sound judgment to prevent incidents which might reflect on the repute of the Commonwealth and act as a detriment to the development of the industry.
2. Permitting persons who are visibly intoxicated to participate in gaming activity.
3. Complimentary service of intoxicating beverages in the casino area to persons who are visibly intoxicated.
4. Failure to conduct advertising and public relations activities in accordance with decency, dignity, good taste, honesty and inoffensiveness, including, but not limited to, advertising that is false or materially misleading.
5. Catering to, assisting, employing or associating with, either socially or in business affairs, persons of notorious or unsavory reputation or who have extensive police records, or persons who have defied congressional investigative committees, or other officially constituted bodies acting on behalf of the United States, or any state, or commonwealth or territory, or persons who are associated with or support subversive movements, or the employing either directly or through a contract, or any other means, of any firm or individual in any capacity where the repute of the Commonwealth or the gaming industry is liable to be damaged because of the unsuitability of the f firm or individual or because of the unethical methods of operation of the firm or individual.

6. Employing in a position for which the individual could be required to be licensed as a key employee pursuant to the provisions of these Regulations, any person who has been denied a Commonwealth gaming license on the grounds of unsuitability or who has failed or refused to apply for licensing as a key employee when so requested by the Commission.

7. Employing in any gaming operation any person whom the Commission or any court has found guilty of cheating or using any improper device in connection with any game, whether as a licensee, dealer, or player at a licensed game or device; as well as any person whose conduct of a licensed game as a dealer or other employee of a licensee resulted in revocation or suspension of the license of such licensee.

8. Failure to comply with or make provision for compliance with all federal, Commonwealth, state and local laws and regulations and with all Commission approved conditions and limitations pertaining to the operations of a licensed establishment including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, payment of all license fees, withholding any payroll taxes, liquor and entertainment taxes. The Commission in the exercise of its sound discretion can make its own determination of whether or not the licensee has failed to comply with the aforementioned, but any such determination shall make use of the established precedents in interpreting the language of the applicable statutes. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect any right to judicial review.

9. (1) Possessing or permitting to remain in or upon any licensed premises any cards, dice, mechanical device or any cheating device whatever, the use of which is prohibited by statute or regulation, or

(2) Conducting, carrying on, operating or dealing any cheating or thieving game or device on the premises, either knowingly or unknowingly, which may have in any manner been marked, tampered with or otherwise placed in a condition, or operated in a manner, which tends to deceive the public or which might make the game more liable to win or lose, or which tends to alter the normal random selection of criteria which determine the results of the game.

10. Failure to conduct gaming operations in accordance with proper standards of custom, decorum and decency, or permit any type of conduct in the gaming establishment which reflects or tends to reflect on the repute of the Commonwealth and act as a detriment to the gaming industry.

11. Issuing credit to a patron to enable the patron to satisfy a debt owed to another licensee or person, including an affiliate of the licensee.

12. Whenever a licensed game, machine or gaming activity is available for play by the public, failing to have a licensed employee of the licensee present on the premises to supervise the operation of the game, machine or activity;

13. Denying any Commission member or agent, upon proper and lawful demand, access to, inspection or disclosure of any portion or aspect of a gaming establishment as authorized by applicable statutes and regulation.
§ 175-10.1-1810 Publication of Pay-offs.

(a) Except as specifically provided herein, payoff schedules or award cards applicable to every licensed game or slot machine shall be displayed at all times either on the table or machine or in a conspicuous place immediately adjacent thereto. In the case of craps, keno and faro games the foregoing requirement will be satisfied if published payoff schedules are maintained in a location readily accessible to players and notice of the location of such schedule is posted on or adjacent to the table. In the case of slot machines, the foregoing requirements will be satisfied if:

1. The player is at all times made aware that payoff schedules or award cards applicable to any game offered for play are readily accessible and will be displayed on the video display screen of the device upon the initiation of a command by the player, or
2. The award cards of any game offered for play are displayed at all times when the device is available for play.

(b) Payoff schedules or award cards must accurately state actual payoffs or awards applicable to the particular game or device and shall not be worded in such manner as to mislead or deceive the public. Maintenance of any misleading or deceptive matter on any payoff schedule or award card or failure on the part of a licensee to make payment in strict accordance with posted payoff schedules or award cards may be deemed an unsuitable method of operation.

§ 175-10.1-1815 Criminal Conviction Grounds for Revocation or Suspension. The Commission may revoke or suspend any license issued by the Commission or finding of suitability of a person who is convicted of a crime, even though the convicted person's post-conviction rights and remedies have not been exhausted, if the crime or conviction discredits or tends to discredit the Commonwealth or the gaming industry.

§ 175-10.1-1820 Violation of Law or Regulations. Violation of any provision of the Act or of these Regulations by a licensee, his agent or employee shall be deemed contrary to the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the inhabitants of the Commonwealth and grounds for suspension or revocation of a license. Acceptance of a Commonwealth gaming license or renewal thereof by a licensee constitutes an agreement on the part of the licensee to be bound by all of the regulations of the Commission as the same now are or may hereafter be amended or promulgated. It is the responsibility of the licensee to keep himself informed of the content of all such regulations, and ignorance thereof will not excuse violations.

§ 175-10.1-1825 Investigation of Conduct of Licensees, Generally. Any gaming license, including but not limited to: a casino license, a service provider license, a vendor license, a casino employee license and a key casino employee license is a revocable privilege, and no holder thereof shall be deemed to have acquired any vested rights therein or thereunder. The burden of proving his qualifications to hold any license rests at all times on the licensee. The Commission is charged by law with the duty of observing the conduct of all licensees to the end that licenses shall not be held by unqualified or disqualified persons or unsuitable persons or persons whose operations are conducted in an unsuitable manner.

§ 175-10.1-1830 Reports of Violations and of Felony Convictions.

(a) The Casino Gaming Licensee, each service provider licensee, each casino employee licensee and each key casino employee licensee shall immediately notify the Commission by telephone of: (1) any violation or suspected violation of any gaming law regarding which the licensee has notified the local police and (2) the discovery of any violation of the Act, Regulations, Minimum Internal Control Standards, or Internal Control Standards.

(b) Any person holding a license, registration, or finding of suitability who is convicted of a felony in the Commonwealth or is convicted of an offense in another state or jurisdiction which would be a felony if committed in the Commonwealth shall notify the Commission in writing within ten (10) business days of such conviction.

§ 175-10.1-1835 Access to Premises and Production of Records.

(a) No applicant for any gaming license, including but not limited to: a casino gaming license, a service provider license, a casino employee license and a key casino employee license, shall neglect or refuse to produce records or evidence or to give information upon proper and lawful demand by a Commission member or any agent of the Commission or shall otherwise interfere, or attempt to interfere, with any proper and lawful efforts by the Commission, or any Commission agent to produce such information.

(b) No licensee or enrolled person shall neglect or refuse to produce records or evidence or to give information upon proper and lawful demand by a Commission member or any agent of the Commission or shall otherwise interfere, or attempt to interfere, with any proper and lawful efforts by the Commission, or any Commission agent to produce such information.

(c) Each licensed manufacturer, licensed distributor or seller, licensed casino and licensed casino service provider, shall immediately make available for inspection by any Commission member or agent all papers, books and records produced by any gaming business and all portions of the premises where gaming is conducted or where gambling devices or equipment are manufactured, sold or distributed. Any Commission member or agent shall be given immediate access to any portion of the premises of any casino licensee or casino service provider for the purpose of inspecting or examining any records or documents required to be kept by such licensee under the Regulations and any gaming device or equipment or the conduct of any gaming activity.

§ 175-10.1-1840 Summoning of Licensee. The Commission may summon any licensee or its agents or employees to appear to testify before it or its agents with regard to the conduct of any licensee or the agents or employees of any licensee. All such testimony shall be under oath and may embrace any matters which the Commission or its agents may deem relevant to the discharge of its official duties. Any person so summoned to appear shall have the right to be represented by counsel. Any testimony so taken may be used by the Commission as evidence in any proceeding or matter then before it or which may later come before it. Failure to so appear and testify fully at the time and place designated, unless excused by the Commission, shall constitute grounds for the revocation or suspension of any license held by the person summoned, his principal or employer.

§ 175-10.1-1845 Unauthorized Games. No Casino Gaming Licensee shall permit any game to be operated or played without first applying for and receiving permission from the Commission to operate such game. The violation of this regulation may be deemed an unsuitable method of operation.

§ 175-10.1-1850 Unlicensed Games or Devices.

(a) No unlicensed gambling games shall be operated upon the premises of the Casino Gaming Licensee, nor shall the licensee expose in an area accessible to the public any machine, fixture, table, or device which may be used in the operation of a gambling game without first having paid all current fees and taxes applicable to such games.

(b) Whenever the Casino Gaming Licensee desires to temporarily remove or suspend a game from a licensed status, the licensee shall provide advanced written notice to the Commission stating the type and number of games sought to be suspended, the initial date and duration of the proposed suspension, and in addition to such notice, the licensee shall thereafter physically remove the gaming device from any area exposed to the public.

(c) Before any game or gaming device suspended from a licensed status in accordance with the foregoing procedure may be reactivated and placed into play, the Casino Gaming Licensee shall advise the Commission in writing of its intention and date to reactivate such game, and pay all fees and taxes applicable to said game, and upon the Commission's re-inspection of any gaming device previously sealed, the game may be exposed to play.

§ 175-10.1-1855 Collection of Gaming Credit.

(a) Only bonded, duly licensed collection agencies, or a licensee's employees, junket representatives, or attorneys, may collect, on the Casino Gaming Licensee's behalf and for any consideration, gaming credit extended by the licensee.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), the Casino Gaming Licensee shall not permit any person who has been found unsuitable, or who has been denied a gaming license of any kind, or who has had a gaming license of any kind revoked, to collect, on the licensee's behalf and for any consideration, gaming credit extended by the Casino Gaming Licensee.
(c) Each licensee shall maintain for the Commission's inspection records that describe credit collection arrangements and that include any written contracts entered into with the persons described in subsection (a).

(d) The Casino Gaming Licensee and its agents shall be required to collect, at a minimum, the greater of $1 million or 10% of the gaming credit within ninety (90) days of the settled gaming credit from each respective patron. If the Casino Gaming Licensee fails to collect this required minimum, the Casino Gaming Licensee must provide within thirty (30) days after this ninety (90) day minimum amount collection period the following:
1. A schedule listing the patron(s) who failed to pay this minimum amount and balances due to the Casino Gaming Licensee, and
2. Copies of the documentations substantiating good faith efforts made in collection attempts.

§ 175-10.1-1860 Surveillance Systems.

(a) The Commission shall adopt standards for the installation, maintenance and operation of casino surveillance systems at all licensed establishments. The purposes of a casino surveillance system are to assist the Casino Gaming Licensee and the Commonwealth in safeguarding the licensee's assets, in deterring, detecting and prosecuting criminal acts, and in maintaining public confidence and trust that licensed gaming is conducted honestly and free of criminal elements and activity.

(b) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall install, maintain and operate a casino surveillance system in accordance with the casino surveillance standards adopted by the Commission. The failure of a licensee to comply with this section and the casino surveillance standards adopted by the Commission is an unsuitable method of operation.

(c) The Casino Gaming Licensee must submit a written casino surveillance system plan to the Commission. The plan must be in a form approved or required by the Commission, and must include a description of all equipment utilized in the casino surveillance system, a blueprint or diagram that shows all of the areas to be monitored and the placement of surveillance equipment in relation to the activities being observed, a description of the procedures utilized in the operation of the casino surveillance system, and any other information required by the casino surveillance standards. If the licensee does not conduct an activity that is addressed in the casino surveillance standards, then the plan must include a statement to that effect. The plan must be amended and the amendments to the plan or the plan as amended must be submitted to the Commission on an annual basis by the licensee, to reflect any modification made to the licensee's casino surveillance system during the preceding year that resulted from (1) the repeal or revision of any existing casino surveillance standard or the adoption of any new casino surveillance standard, (2) a change in the layout or configuration of any area required to be monitored, or (3) any exemption granted by the Commission. If no such modifications were made, then the licensee § 175-10.1-1901 Licensure and registration required: Casino Employee.

(a) No person shall be employed as a casino employee unless such person is temporarily licensed or licensed as a casino employee in accordance with these Regulations. Licensure shall last for the duration specified by the Commission; provided that annual registrations of the Casino Employee license are required in a form to be determined by the Executive Director or by the Commission.

§ 175-10.1-1905 Licensure and Registration Required; Casino Key Employee.

(a) No person shall be employed as a casino key employee unless such person is provisionally licensed or licensed as a casino key employee in accordance with these Regulations. Licensure shall last for the duration specified by the Commission; provided that annual registrations of the Casino Key Employee license are required in a form to be determined by the Executive Director or by the Commission.

§ 175-10.1-1910 Temporary Licensure; Provisional Licensure.

(a) A person is deemed temporarily licensed as a casino employee upon submission by the casino licensee of an Application for Licensure to the Commission for the applicant, unless otherwise determined by the Commission or the Executive Director. The person to be employed is not the applicant and is merely a beneficiary of the application process. The Casino Licensee may withdraw the application at any time without notice to or approval from the proposed employee beneficiary.

(b) The Application for Licensure is an application package, in electronic or paper form, containing all the components of a complete application for registration for a casino employee or a casino key employee or renewal of licensure of the same consisting of, at a minimum:

1. The online or paper form for application promulgated by the Executive Director for Licensure or renewal of licensure as a casino employee or casino key employee in electronic or paper form; and
2. Two (2) sets of fingerprints of the applicant or, if applicable, proof that the applicant’s fingerprints were previously submitted electronically or by another means to the Commission;
3. The applicable fee for licensure or renewal; and
4. The statement promulgated in § 175-10.1-925.

(c) Temporary licensure as a casino employee is valid for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days after an application for licensure is received by the Commission, unless objected to by the Executive Director, or otherwise suspended or revoked.

(d) The Executive Director may promulgate different forms for casino employees and casino key employee applications.

(e) The Executive Director may, in his sole and absolute discretion, issue a Provisional Casino Key Employee License to any person who applies for a license as a Casino Key Employee by § 175-10.1-1905, provided such applicant applies for a Provisional License pursuant to this section.

(f) The Provisional Casino Key Employee License shall be valid for such time as the applicant’s Casino Key Employee license application is pending with the Commission for investigation, consideration, determination of suitability and any other period before the Commission (1) grants the license; or (2) rejects the application.

(g) If the applicant withdraws his application for a Casino Key Employee License required by § 175-10.1-1905, the Provisional License issued by the Executive Director pursuant to § 175-10.1-1910(e) shall immediately expire.

(h) In determining whether to issue a Provisional Casino Key Employee license pursuant to § 175-10.1-1910(e), the Executive Director must consider whether issuing such license will bring disrepute to the Commonwealth or the gaming industry.

(i) The Executive Director shall not issue a Provisional Key Employee License to any person who is not currently licensed as a casino key employee in the CNMI or any other US jurisdiction, but the Executive Director may issue a Provisional Key Employee License to any person who was licensed as a casino key employee any other US jurisdiction within the last five (5) years, but who surrendered their licensure while in good standing upon termination of their employment in the jurisdiction.

(j) The Executive Director may use the information the applicant supplied with his application for a Casino Key Employee license required by § 175-10.1-1905 in considering whether to issue the Provisional License, and may require any additional § 175-10.1-1915 Suspension and Reinstatement of Temporary or Provisional Licensure.

(a) The Executive Director may suspend the temporary or provisional licensure of an applicant if he determines that:

1. The application for licensure received from the applicant is not complete;
2. The handwriting exemplar is illegible;
3. The fingerprints submitted by the applicant are illegible or unclassifiable;

or
4. The protection of the public welfare requires immediate suspension.

(b) The Executive Director shall suspend the temporary or provisional licensure of an applicant if he determines that the statement promulgated in § 175-10.1-925 is not completed, not signed, or the applicant indicates on the statement that he is subject to a court order for the support of a child and is not in compliance with the order or a plan approved by the Attorney General or other public agency enforcing the order for the repayment of the amount owed pursuant to the order.

(c) If the Executive Director suspends the temporary or provisional Licensure of an applicant pursuant to subsections (a)(1) or (2), he shall notify the applicant and the Casino Gaming Licensee of such suspension.

(d) An applicant whose temporary or provisional licensure is suspended pursuant to subsections (a)(1) or (2), shall not be eligible to work as a casino employee or casino key employee until such time as he rectifies the cause for such suspension and the Executive Director reinstates his temporary or provisional Licensure. If an applicant rectifies the cause for his suspension and the Executive Director reinstates his temporary or provisional Licensure, the period of time in which the applicant's temporary or provisional licensure was suspended pursuant to this regulation shall not be included in measuring the one hundred eighty (180) day period in which the Executive Director may object to such temporary Licensure of the applicant, if applicable. An applicant whose temporary or provisional licensure is suspended pursuant to subsections (a)(4), shall not be eligible to work as a casino employee or casino key employee until such time as the Executive Director or the Chairman lifts the temporary suspension prior to a hearing, or the Commission lifts the suspension after a hearing.

§ 175-10.1-1920 Investigation; Criteria for Objection; Objection.

(a) Upon receipt of an application for Licensure as a casino employee or casino key employee (provisional or otherwise), the Executive Director shall review it for completeness.

(b) Unless the Executive Director, after reviewing an application for licensure, suspends the temporary licensure of the applicant pursuant to 175-10.1-1915, he shall conduct an investigation of the applicant to determine whether he is eligible to be or continue to be licensed as a casino employee or casino key employee.

(c) The Executive Director may object to the licensure of an applicant within one hundred eighty (180) days after receipt of a complete application for licensure based on any action or inaction of the applicant that the Executive Director determines is inimical to the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the people of the Commonwealth, or that would reflect or tend to reflect discredit upon the Commonwealth or the gaming industry. The Executive Director may object to the licensure of an applicant based on the association of the applicant with any person who the Executive Director determines is inimical to the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the people of the Commonwealth, or who reflects or tends to reflect discredit upon the Commonwealth or the gaming industry.

(d) If the Executive Director objects to the Licensure of an applicant pursuant to this regulation, the Executive Director shall notify:
   1. The applicant of the objection and the right to apply for a hearing pursuant to these Regulations; and
   2. The casino licensee.

(e) The failure of an applicant to seek review of a determination that he is not eligible for licensure as a casino employee or casino key employee shall be deemed to be an admission that the objection is well founded and such failure precludes administrative or judicial review.

(f) If, after receiving notice per (d)(2) above, the Casino Gaming Licensee no longer wishes to employ the applicant, it shall provide notice to the Executive Director and withdraw the application. If the casino licensee withdraws the application, no license will be finally granted, the temporary license will be revoked, the matter will be deemed closed, and the Commission may dismiss the Complaint sua sponte or upon motion of the Executive Director without a hearing.

(g) If the Executive Director does not object to the licensure of an applicant pursuant to this Part, the applicant shall be deemed licensed as a casino employee or casino key employee and is eligible for employment with the Casino Gaming Licensee in the Commonwealth until such registration expires per its terms or per these Regulations, is suspended, or is revoked per these Regulations.

§ 175-10.1-1925  Duties of Casino Licensee.

(a) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall not knowingly employ any person as a casino employee or casino key employee unless such person is temporarily licensed or licensed as a casino employee or casino key employee. A licensee shall check, and may rely on, the system of records maintained by the Commission to verify the temporary licensure, licensure or eligibility of a person seeking employment as a casino employee or casino key employee.
(b) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall only access the system of records after a person applies for a position as a casino employee or casino key employee solely to determine whether the person is licensed, temporarily licensed, or subject to objection, suspension or revocation, or to initiate an application transaction in the Commission's online gaming employee licensure system. The Casino Gaming Licensee shall maintain written documentation establishing that it received an application for employment from a person for a position as a casino employee or casino key employee prior to accessing the system of records and shall retain such documentation for at least five (5) years.

(c) Before the Casino Gaming Licensee grants any employee access to the system of records maintained by the Commission, it shall provide the Commission with the name, social security number and date of birth of such employee. Upon the termination of employment of such employee or the reassignment of such employee to a position that no longer requires him to access the system of records, the Casino Gaming Licensee shall immediately notify the Commission of such termination or reassignment. The information contained within the system of records is confidential and must not be disclosed by such employee or the Casino Gaming Licensee.

(d) If the Casino Gaming Licensee determines, after accessing the system of records maintained by the Commission, that a person seeking employment or renewal as a casino employee or casino key employee with such licensee is not temporarily licensed or licensed as a casino employee or casino key employee, and is not subject to objection, suspension or revocation, the casino licensee shall provide the person with a form for application, the child support statement promulgated in § 175-10.1-925 and instruct the person to:
1. Complete the form for application and the child support statement;
2. Obtain two complete sets of fingerprints;
3. Complete an online payment by credit or debit card through the Commission's online gaming employee licensure system or obtain a money order, cashier's check or voucher in the amount promulgated by the Commission in accordance with these Regulations, or arrange for the casino licensee to make the payment; and
4. Unless otherwise promulgated by the chairman, complete the application for gaming employee licensure online via the Commission's online gaming employee licensure system or return a completed paper application for licensure to the licensee in a sealed envelope, or in any other confidential manner permitted by the Commission, for the casino licensee's submission to the Commission.

(e) If the Casino Gaming Licensee determines, after accessing any system of records maintained by the Commission, that a person seeking employment or renewal as a casino employee or casino key employee with such licensee is subject to objection, suspension or revocation, the Casino Gaming Licensee shall:
(1) Not accept an application for licensure from such person; and
(2) Notify the person that he must contact the Commission in order to pursue reversal or removal of such objection, suspension or revocation.

(f) The Casino Gaming Licensee which instructs a person to obtain two (2) complete sets of fingerprints shall be responsible for payment of the fees charged by the Commonwealth, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or any other agency the Commission approves, for processing such fingerprints.

(g) Upon receipt of an application for licensure, the Casino Gaming Licensee shall mail or deliver it to the Commission within five (5) business days.

(h) The application for licensure is confidential and shall not be accessed or used for any purpose by a licensee unless otherwise permitted by law, or prior, written consent is given by the person seeking employment.

(i) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall immediately reassign to a position that does not require licensure as a casino employee or casino key employee a person it has employed or contracted with as a casino employee or casino key employee if the Executive Director notifies a licensee that the temporary or provisional licensure or licensure of the person it has employed as a casino employee or casino key employee has been objected to by the Executive Director, or otherwise suspended or revoked. The Casino Gaming Licensee also may, in its sole judgment, terminate the employment relationship.

(j) On or before the tenth (10th) day of each month, the casino licensee shall submit a written report to the Commission containing the name, social security number, position held, and date of hire of each casino or casino key employee (temporary, provisional or otherwise) hired during the previous month.

(k) On or before the tenth (10th) day of the ensuing month after a calendar quarter, the casino licensee shall enter a termination date for all casino employees or casino key employees (temporary, provisional or otherwise) terminated or separated from service within the preceding quarter into the Commission's online gaming employee licensure system or submit a written report to the Commission containing the name, social security number, position held, and date of termination or separation of all casino employees or casino key employees (temporary, provisional or otherwise) terminated or separated from service within the preceding quarter.

(l) The casino licensee must maintain a photo of every gaming employee employed by the licensee. The licensee shall maintain the photo for a period of no less than five (5) years after the date in which the gaming employee is no longer employed by the licensee as a gaming employee. The photo must be large enough and of sufficient clarity to be able to clearly identify the gaming employee from the photo. The photo may be in the form of a photograph or it may be digitally stored, but it must be capable of being reproduced and provided at the request of the Commission.
(m) Any violation of 175-10.1-1925(a) or (b) constitutes an unsuitable method of operation and shall be grounds for disciplinary action by the Commission in accordance with the Act and the Regulations.

§ 175-10.1-1930 System of Records: Contents; Confidentiality.

(a) The Commission shall create and maintain a system of records that:
1. Contains information regarding each person who is licensed as a casino employee or casino key employee; and
2. Identifies each person whose licensure as a casino employee or casino key employee has expired, was objected to by the Executive Director, or was otherwise suspended or revoked.

(b) The system of records may be accessed by the Commission at any time and in any manner and may only be accessed by the Casino Gaming Licensee by on-line Internet connection or in person during the Commission's normal office hours and only by those persons or entities authorized by the Commission.

§ 175-10.1-1935 Petition for Hearing to Reconsider Objection to Registration or to Reconsider Suspension or Revocation of Registration.

(a) Any person whose application for licensure as a casino employee or casino key employee has been objected to by the Executive Director, or whose licensure as a casino employee or casino key employee has been suspended or revoked pursuant to these Regulations, may request a hearing for reconsideration of the final administrative or judicial action which resulted in such objection, suspension or revocation.

(b) The aggrieved person may obtain the reconsideration hearing by filing a petition with the Commission which sets forth the basis of the request for reconsideration. The aggrieved person shall, upon filing such petition, include the child support statement promulgated in § 175-10.1-925 and, if requested by the Commission, two (2) new complete sets of fingerprints together with the fee charged therefore.

(c) Upon receipt of a petition, the Commission shall conduct an investigation of the person who filed such petition and schedule a hearing. At the hearing, the Commission or its appointee shall take any testimony deemed necessary. The Commission may appoint a hearing examiner and authorize that person to conduct the hearing, including, but not limited to, any of the functions required of the Commission in the case of hearing conducted pursuant to these Regulations or the Administrative Procedure Act.

(d) After conducting a hearing pursuant to subsection (c), the Commission or its appointee shall render a decision sustaining, modifying or withdrawing the objection which shall be mailed to the person within forty five (45) days after the date of the hearing; or

(e) The Commission, in reviewing a decision or recommendation of the Executive Director, may sustain, modify or reverse the decision or recommendation of the Commission.
Executive Director or any appointed hearing officer, may revoke, suspend, or terminate the license, or remand the petition to the Executive Director or hearing officer for such further investigation or reconsideration as the commission may order.

(f) An aggrieved person who files a petition pursuant to this regulation may submit a written request for withdrawal of such petition to the Commission at any time before the Commission has acted upon a decision or recommendation of the Executive Director or appointee.

§ 175-10.1-1940 Criminal Conviction Grounds for Revocation or Suspension. The Commission may revoke or suspend the casino employee license or casino key employee license or finding of suitability of a person who is convicted of a crime, even though the convicted person's post-conviction rights and remedies have not been exhausted, if the crime or conviction discredits or tends to discredit the Commonwealth or the gaming industry.

§ 175-10.1945 Violation of Law or Regulations. Violation of any provision of the Act or of these Regulations by a casino employee or casino key employee shall be deemed contrary to the public health, safety, morals, good order and general welfare of the inhabitants of the Commonwealth and grounds for suspension or revocation of a license. Acceptance of a Commonwealth gaming license or renewal thereof by a licensee constitutes an agreement on the part of the licensee to be bound by all of the regulations of the Commission as the same now are or may hereafter be amended or promulgated. It is the responsibility of the licensee to keep himself informed of the content of all such regulations, and ignorance thereof will not excuse violations.

§ 175-10.1950 Registration of Non-gaming Employees. All employees of the Casino Licensee who are not holders of a Casino Employee license or a Casino Key Employee licensee must register with the Commission within two (2) weeks of their employment and annually thereafter in a form to be determined by the Executive Director or by the Commission.

§ 175-10.1-2001 Approval of Chips and Tokens; Applications and Procedures.
(a) A licensee shall not issue any chips or tokens for use in its gaming establishment, or redeem any such chips or tokens, unless the chips or tokens have been approved in writing by the Commission. A licensee shall not issue any chips or tokens for use in its gaming establishment, or redeem any such chips or tokens, that are modifications of chips or tokens previously approved by the Commission, unless the modifications have been approved in writing.

(b) Applications for approval of chips, tokens, and modifications to previously-approved chips or tokens must be made, processed, and determined in such manner and using such forms as the Commission may prescribe. Only casino licensees or the manufacturer authorized by these licensees to produce the chips or tokens, may apply for such approval. Each application must include, in addition to such other items or information as the Commission may require:

(1) An exact drawing, in color or in black-and-white, of each side and the edge of the proposed chip or token, drawn to actual size or drawn to larger than actual size and in scale, and showing the measurements of the proposed chip or token in each dimension;

(2) Written specifications for the proposed chips or tokens;

(3) The name and address of the manufacturer;

(4) The licensee's intended use for the proposed chips or tokens; and

(5) A verification upon oath or notarized affirmation, executed by the chief operating officer of the chip or token manufacturer, or a person with equivalent responsibilities, that it has a written system of internal control, approved by the Commission, which describes in detail the current administrative, accounting and security procedures which are utilized in the manufacture, storage and shipment of the chips, tokens and related material. The written system must include at a minimum, a detailed, narrative description of the procedures and controls implemented to ensure the integrity and security of the manufacturing process, from design through shipment, including but not limited to those procedures and controls designed specifically to:

i. Provide for the secure storage or destruction of all pre-production prototypes, samples, production rejects and other nonsellable product.

ii. Provide security over the finished art work, hubs, plates, dies, molds, stamps and other related items which are used in the manufacturing process.

iii. Prevent the unauthorized removal of product from the production facility through the utilization of security devices such as metal detectors, and surveillance cameras.

iv. Restrict access to raw materials, work-in-process, and finished goods inventories to authorized personnel.

v. Establish procedures for documenting approval of production runs.

vi. Establish and maintain a perpetual inventory system which adequately documents the flow of materials through the manufacturing process.

Significant variances are to be documented, investigated by management personnel, and immediately reported to the Divisions of Audit and Compliance.

x. Document controls over the shipment of finished product, and

xi. Provide such other or additional information as the Commission may require.

(c) The Commission may approve variations from the specific requirements of this regulation if in the opinion of the Commission the alternative controls and procedures meet the objectives of this regulation.

If the Commission is satisfied that the sample conforms with the requirements of this regulation and with the information submitted with the licensee's application, the Commission shall approve the proposed chips or tokens and notify the licensee in writing. As a condition of approval of chips or tokens issued for use at the licensee's race book, sports pool, or specific table or counter game, the Commission may prohibit the licensee from using the chips or tokens other than at the book, pool, or specific game. The Commission may retain the sample chips and tokens submitted pursuant to this Regulation.

(e) At the time of approval of a system of internal control, the Commission may require the manufacturer to provide, and thereafter maintain with The Casino Gaming Licensee, a revolving fund in an amount determined by the Commission, which amount shall not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00). The Commission and its staff may use the revolving fund at any time without notice, for the purpose of implementing the provisions of this regulation.

(d) Tokens must not be manufactured from a three-layered material consisting of a copper-nickel alloy clad on both sides of a pure copper core, nor from a copper-based material, unless the total of zinc, nickel, aluminum, magnesium, and other alloying materials is at least 20 percent of the token's weight.

(f) The Commission may approve any other thickness, dimension, size, shape, denomination and material for tokens as it deems necessary and prudent.

§ 175-10.1-2020 Use of Chips and Tokens.

(a) Chips and tokens are solely representatives of value which evidence a debt owed to their custodian by the Casino Gaming Licensee and are not the property of anyone other than the licensee.

(b) The Casino Gaming Licensee uses chips or tokens at its gaming establishment shall:
1. Comply with all applicable statutes, regulations, and policies of the Commonwealth and of the United States pertaining to chips or tokens;
2. Issue chips and tokens only to patrons of its gaming establishment and only at their request;
3. Promptly redeem its own chips and tokens from its patrons by cash or check drawn on an account of the licensee;
4. Post conspicuous signs at its establishment notifying patrons that federal law prohibits the use of the licensee's tokens, that Commonwealth law prohibits the use of the licensee's chips, outside the establishment for any monetary purpose whatever, and that the chips and tokens issued by the licensee are the property of the licensee, only; and
5. Take reasonable steps, including examining chips and tokens and segregating those issued by other licensees to prevent the issuance to its patrons of chips and tokens issued by any other casino.

(c) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall not accept chips or tokens as payment for any goods or services offered at the licensee's gaming establishment with the exception of the specific use for which the chips or tokens were issued, and shall not give chips or tokens as change in any other transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Value chips of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or less may be accepted as payment for food or beverage in the gaming areas of the operations of the casino operator licensee's operations in the Commonwealth.

(d) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall not redeem its chips or tokens if presented by a person who the licensee knows or reasonably should know is not a patron of its gaming establishment, except that a licensee shall promptly redeem its chips and tokens if presented by an employee or key employee of the licensee who presents the chips and tokens in the normal course of employment.

(e) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall redeem its chips and tokens if presented by an agent of the Commission in the performance of his official duties or on behalf of another governmental agency.

(f) The Casino Gaming Licensee shall not knowingly issue, use, permit the use of, or redeem chips or tokens issued by any other licensee.

(g) Chips whose use is restricted to uses other than at table games or other than at specified table games may be redeemed by the issuing licensee at table games or non-specified table games if the chips are presented by a patron, and the licensee redeems the chips with chips issued for use at the game, places the redeemed chips in the table's drop box, and separates and properly accounts for the redeemed chips during the count performed pursuant to the licensee's system of internal control required by Part 500.

§ 175-10.1-2025 Redemption and Disposal of Discontinued Chips and Tokens.

(a) If the Casino Gaming Licensee permanently removes from use or replaces approved chips or tokens at its gaming establishment, or ceases operating its gaming establishment whether because of closure or sale of the establishment or any other reason, must prepare a plan for redeeming discontinued chips and tokens that remain outstanding at the time of discontinuance. The licensee must submit the plan in writing to the Commission not later than sixty (60) days before the proposed removal, replacement, sale, or closure, unless the closure or other cause for discontinuance of the chips or tokens cannot reasonably be anticipated, in which event the licensee must submit the plan as soon as reasonably practicable. The Commission may approve the plan or require reasonable modifications as a condition of approval. Upon approval of the plan, the licensee shall implement the plan as approved.
(b) In addition to such other reasonable provisions as the Commission may approve or require, the plan must provide for:

1. Redemption of outstanding, discontinued chips and tokens in accordance with this regulation for at least one hundred twenty (120) days after the removal or replacement of the chips or tokens or for at least one hundred twenty (120) days after operations cease, as the case may be, or for such longer or shorter period as the Commission may for good cause approve or require;

(c) Conspicuous posting of the notice described in paragraph (b) at the gaming establishment or other redemption location; and

(d) Destruction or such other disposition of the discontinued chips and tokens as the Commission may approve or require.

(c) Unless a law enforcement officer instructs or a court of competent jurisdiction orders otherwise in a particular case, the Casino Gaming Licensee may dispose of coins of the United States or any other nation discovered to have been unlawfully used at their establishments by including them in their coin inventories or, in the case of foreign coins, by exchanging them for United States currency or coins and including same in their currency or coin inventories, or by disposing of them in any other lawful manner.

§ 175-10.1-2205 List of Exclusion and Ejection.

(a) The Commission hereby declares that the exclusion or ejection of certain persons from licensed gaming establishments which conduct pari-mutuel wagering or operate any race book, sports pool or games, is necessary to effectuate the policies of the Act and to maintain effectively the strict regulation of licensed gaming. Accordingly, the Commission hereby establishes a list of persons who are to be excluded or ejected from licensed gaming establishments that conduct gaming, wagering, pari-mutuel wagering or operate any horse race book, sports pool or games because their presence therein is determined by the Commission to pose a threat to the interests of the Commonwealth or to licensed gaming, or both.

(b) The Commission may include a person on the list if the Commission finds to its satisfaction that the person:

4. Is the subject of a written order of a tribunal or governmental agency which authorizes the exclusion or ejection of the person from an establishment at which gaming or pari-mutuel wagering is conducted.

1. Before a name is placed on the list, the Commission shall first informally review the information and evidence in its possession and make a determination that there is sufficient reason to believe that any one of the criteria specified in 175-10.1-2205(b) is applicable to the candidate. At least two Members shall concur in such decision at an investigative hearing, but no formal meeting of the Commission shall be required to reach a decision.

(2) Upon ascertaining that a person on the Self-Exclusion List is present in the licensed facility for purposes other than licensed employment, a licensee must inventory, in the presence of a CCC agent, all claimed or unclaimed jackpots and winnings, and all chips, tokens, vouchers or electronic credits in play or in plain view in the possession or control of the self-excluded person, at the time he or she is apprehended. The owner licensee shall provide a receipt to the self-excluded person for all items inventoried.
(3) The casino licensee shall refrain from paying out jackpots under $1,200 and from paying out all jackpots in amounts of $1,200 or over won by patrons on the Self-Exclusion List. The casino licensee shall refrain from paying out any winnings of any kind to persons on the Self-Exclusion List.

(d) The casino licensee shall cause the name and address of any person on the Self-Exclusion List to be flagged on all check-cashing, credit issuance, and other financial eligibility lists or databases utilized by the casino licensee for any purposes, except as authorized by this Part. Licensees shall not knowingly cash checks for, extend gaming operation credit to, or otherwise assist a person on the Self-Exclusion List to obtain funds for gambling purposes.

§ 175-10.1-2935 Request for Removal from the Self-Exclusion List.

(a) Upon the expiration of 5 years from the date of placement on the Self-Exclusion List, any person who has been placed on the Self-Exclusion List may request the Executive Director to remove his or her name from the Self-Exclusion List. The request must be in writing, state with specificity the reason for the request and be submitted to the Executive Director at the Commission's office in Saipan. The request must be based on the elimination of a mental health or medical condition underlying the person’s acknowledgment that he or she has been a problem gambler and unable to gamble responsibly. Information as to mental health or medical conditions will be maintained pursuant privacy provisions of the Commonwealth constitution and other applicable federal and Commonwealth laws.

(b) If the Executive Director approves the request, the Executive Director shall inform the casino licensee of the removal no later than 10 days after approval. If the Executive Director denies the request, the Executive Director shall send to the person who has requested removal a Notice of Denial of Removal from the Self-Exclusion List by certified mail. The casino licensee may continue to deny gambling privileges to self-excluded persons who have been removed from the List.

(c) A decision whether to remove a person from the Self-Exclusion List shall be within the discretion of the Executive Director, subject to the fulfillment of all requirements under § 175-10.1-2940 and further subject to the process provided by § 175-10.1-2945.

§ 175-10.1-2940 Required Information, Recommendations, Forms and Interviews.

(a) A person requesting removal from the Self-Exclusion List must, in connection with the request, provide the Executive Director with all of the following:

(1) Documentation as to treatment received for the person's gambling problem, length of treatment, and names and qualifications of treatment providers.
(2) A written recommendation, from a treating physician or qualified mental health professional who is a certified gambling counselor, as to the self-excluded person's capacity to participate in gambling without adverse health and mental health risks or consequences related to gambling. For purposes of this Subpart, "certified gambling counselor" means an individual who has completed a specific course of study in the treatment of problem gambling and has been certified by a certification organization acceptable to the Commission and listed on the Commission's website.

(3) Upon request of the Executive Director, a written recommendation, from a second or subsequent physician or qualified mental health professional who is a certified gambling counselor, as to the self-excluded person's capacity to participate in gambling without adverse health and mental health risks or consequences related to gambling.

(4) All information required under Section §175-10.1-2915(a)(1)-(7).

(5) A statement informing the Executive Director whether the person has been present at the licensed casino while not working while on the Self-Exclusion List and, if so, the dates and times of attendance.

(6) A waiver of liability of the Commission, its agents and the Commonwealth for any damages that may arise out of any act or omission committed by the person as a consequence of his or her removal from the Self-Exclusion List, including any monetary or other damages sustained in connection with the person's renewal of any gambling or gaming activities of any kind.

(7) A verified, written consent to the release of all of the person's medical and counseling records related to the proposed removal from the Self-Exclusion List.

(8) Any additional information, forms, recommendations, or other materials necessary, as determined by the Executive Director, to demonstrate the elimination of the mental health or medical condition underlying the person's acknowledgement that he or she has been a problem gambler and unable to gamble responsibly.

(b) Upon request of the Executive Director, a person seeking removal from the Self-Exclusion List shall appear for an interview at an office of the Commission designated by the Executive Director during regular business hours. Persons who are unable to travel to a Commission office due to employment, financial or medical reasons may request, in writing, a reasonable accommodation in a manner or at a site and time designated at the sole discretion of the Executive Director. Nothing in this Section shall require that an accommodation be granted.

(c) The Executive Director shall ascertain to the extent possible whether a person requesting removal from the Self-Exclusion List was ever present in the area within the licensed facilities for purposes other than work while on the list.

(d) The Executive Director shall not rule on a request for removal from the Self-Exclusion List until all requirements of this Section have been fulfilled.

§ 175-10.1-2945 Appeal of a Notice of Denial of Removal.

(a) A denial by the Executive Director of a request by a self-excluded person to be removed from the Self-Exclusion List pursuant to § 175-10.1-2935 shall be subject to review by the Commission upon a verified written petition submitted to the Commission within 15 days after the issuance of the Notice of Denial of Removal, which shall be deemed to be notice required by § 175-10.1-1420(a).

(b) The petition shall state with specificity facts believed by the petitioner to constitute clear and convincing evidence for removal of his or her name from the Self-Exclusion List. The petition shall be notarized and shall include a certification in the following form:

The undersigned certifies that the statements set forth in this petition are true and correct, except as to matters in the petition stated to be on information and belief. As to matters stated to be on information and belief, the undersigned certifies that he or she believes these matters to be true and correct.

(c) The Commission shall either deny the petition or set the petition for hearing. The Commission may deny a petition if:

(1) The petition fails to comply with any of the requirements of subsection (a) or (b) of this Section;
(2) The facts contained in the petition are the same or substantially the same facts that the petitioner set forth in a previous petition filed under this Section; or
(3) The petition, assuming all facts contained in it are true and correct, does not establish a prima facie case.

(d) In the event the Commission elects to set the petition for hearing, the procedures specified for other Contested Cases.

(e) For purposes of hearings conducted under this Section, all information, recommendations, forms, records of interviews and other materials, formal and informal, obtained by the Executive Director shall be considered official Commission records and therefore admissible into evidence.

(f) All proceedings related to an administrative hearing on a Notice of Denial of Removal shall be closed to members of the public unless otherwise consented to in writing by the self-excluded person or allowed by federal or State law.

(g) The Commission's denial of a petition brought under this Section is a final decision of the Commission.

§ 175-10.1-2950 Duties of Casino Licensee to Persons Removed from the Self-Exclusion List.

a) The casino licensee shall establish its own policies and procedures for allowing or disallowing any person removed from the Self-Exclusion List to enter for purposes other than licensed employment or game in its facility subsequent to the person's removal from the Self-Exclusion List.
b) Nothing in this Part shall require any licensee under the Act to provide assistance to a person removed from the Self-Exclusion List.

§ 175-10.1-2955 Placement on the Self-Exclusion List Following Removal. A person whose name has been removed from the Self-Exclusion List may subsequently request to be placed again on the list. The procedure for placement on the Self-Exclusion List under this Section shall be the same as that for a person requesting placement on the list for the first time. A placement of a person on the Self-Exclusion List under this Section shall be permanent, notwithstanding any other provision of this Subpart.

§ 175-10.1-2960 Duties of the Commission. The Commission may assist a person who acknowledges that he or she has, or has had, a gambling problem as provided in this Part. The Executive Director may provide to a person seeking placement on, or removal from, the Self-Exclusion List pertinent information about problem gambling and post-treatment assistance, deemed appropriate. The Executive Director may refer any inquiries for assessment, evaluation, treatment or post-treatment assistance from a person seeking to be placed on, or removed from, the Self-Exclusion List to the Commonwealth Health Corporation or another appropriate source of information.
to a patron, the licensee and the patron are unable to resolve the dispute to the satisfaction of the patron and the dispute involves:

(1) At least Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), the licensee shall immediately notify the executive director; or

(2) Less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), the licensee shall inform the patron of his right to request that the executive director conduct an investigation.

(b) The executive director shall conduct whatever investigation is deemed necessary and shall determine whether payment should be made. Thereafter, the Executive Director shall issue an appropriate Order. This Order shall not constitute a waiver, suspension, or modification of the requirements of the CCC Regulations, which remain in full force and effect. Issuance of this Order is not an election by the Commission, Executive Director, or the Commonwealth to forego any civil or any criminal action otherwise authorized by any other applicable law or regulation.

(c) The executive director shall provide written notice to the commission, the licensee and the patron of his decision resolving the dispute within thirty (30) days after the date the executive director first receives notification from the licensee or a request to conduct an investigation from the patron.

(d) Failure to notify the executive director or patron as provided in subsection (a) is an unsuitable method of operation.

(e) The decision of the executive director is effective on the date the aggrieved party receives notice of the decision. The date of receipt is presumed to be the date specified on the return receipt, if the notice was mailed.

(f) Notice of the decision of the executive director shall be deemed sufficient if it is mailed to the last known address of the licensee and patron. The date of mailing may be proven by a certificate signed by an employee of the executive director that specifies the time the notice was mailed. The notice is presumed to have been received by the licensee or the patron five (5) days after it is deposited with the United States Postal Service with the postage thereon prepaid.

§ 175-10.1-3005 Construction. (a) This Part should be liberally construed to achieve fair, just, equitable, and expedient resolutions of all disputes

§ 175-10.1-3010 Service. Except as otherwise provided in this Part:

(a) All pleadings, notices, and other papers required by this Part to be served may be served by personal delivery or certified mail.

(b) A party serving a pleading, notice or other paper required by this Part to be served must file a proof of service in the form of a certificate signed by the party or his representative and stating the date and manner of service.
§ 175-10.1-3015 Initiation Of Hearing Procedure; Notice Of Hearing.

(a) Proceedings to review a decision made by the Executive Director pursuant to § 175-10.1-3001 must be initiated by the filing and service of a petition in accordance with this chapter or be barred.

(b) A copy of the petition must be served on the respondent.

(c) The respondent may file and serve a written response within 15 days after being served with a copy of the petition.

(d) After the time for respondent to file and serve a written response to the petition has expired, the hearing examiner appointed by the Executive Director or the Commission shall determine the date, time and place of the hearing on the petition.

(e) Notice of the hearing must be served by the hearing examiner on each of the parties at least 20 days before the hearing, unless the hearing examiner reasonably determines that a lesser notice period is appropriate.

§ 175-10.1-3020 Pre-Hearing Motions. Unless otherwise ordered by the hearing examiner, all pre-hearing motions must be filed and served at least ten (10) days before the hearing.

§ 175-10.1-3025 Nature of Hearing.

(a) Unless the hearing examiner reasonably determines that a different procedure is appropriate, the hearing may be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:
1. The petitioner may present an opening statement on the merits and the respondent may then make a statement of the defense. The respondent may reserve his statement of the defense for the presentation of his case.
2. After his opening statement, if made, and the respondent's statement of the defense, if not reserved, the petitioner shall present his case in chief in support of the petition.
3. Upon conclusion of the petitioner's case in chief, the respondent may move for dismissal of the petition. The hearing examiner may grant, deny, or reserve decision on the motion, with or without argument.
4. If no motion to dismiss is made, or if such motion is denied or decision is reserved thereon, the respondent shall then present his case in defense.
5. Upon conclusion of the respondent's case, the petitioner may present rebuttal evidence.
6. After the presentation of the evidence by the parties, the petitioner may present a closing argument. The respondent may then present his closing argument and the petitioner may then present a rebuttal argument. Thereafter the matter will stand submitted for decision.

(b) All or part of the hearing may be conducted by telephone or videoconference.
(c) The hearing must be recorded by the hearing examiner on audio tape or other means of sound reproduction, unless it is reported stenographically for a party at the party's own expense, in which case the party must provide the original hearing transcript to the hearing examiner.

(d) Unless otherwise ordered by the hearing examiner, the parties may submit written memoranda of points and authorities at any time before the hearing. The hearing examiner may order or allow the parties to file written memoranda of points and authorities after the conclusion of the hearing.

(e) Continuances of the hearing date may be granted upon a showing of good cause by the party requesting the continuance.

§ 175-10.1-3030 Presentation of Evidence.

(a) Oral evidence may be taken only upon oath or affirmation administered by the hearing examiner.

(b) Affidavits may be received in evidence.

(c) Each party may:

1. Call and examine witnesses;
2. Introduce exhibits relevant to the issues of the case, including the transcript of testimony at any investigative hearing;
3. Cross-examine opposing witnesses on any matter relevant to the issues of the case, even though the matter was not covered in a direct examination;
4. Impeach any witness, regardless of which party first called him to testify; and
5. Offer rebuttal evidence.

(d) If a party does not testify on his own behalf he may be called and examined as if under cross-examination.

(e) The hearing examiner may take official notice of any generally accepted information or technical or scientific matter within the field of gaming, and of any other fact which may be judicially noticed by the courts of this Commonwealth. The parties must be informed of any information, matters or facts so noticed and must be given a reasonable opportunity, on request, to refute such information, matters or facts by evidence or by written or oral presentation of authorities. The manner of such refutation shall be determined by the hearing examiner.

§ 175-10.1-3035 Admissibility of Evidence.

(a) The hearing need not be conducted according to technical rules relating to evidence and witnesses. Any relevant evidence may be admitted and is sufficient in itself to support a finding if it is the sort of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs, regardless of the existence of any common law or statutory rule which might make improper the admission of such evidence over objection in a civil action.

(b) The parties or their counsel may by stipulation agree that certain evidence be admitted even though such evidence might otherwise be subject to objection.

(c) Irrelevant and unduly repetitious evidence should not be admitted.

§ 175-10.1-3040 Subpoenas. At the request of a party, subpoenas may be issued by the hearing examiner.

§ 175-10.1-3045 Discovery. No discovery shall be permitted except upon a finding of good cause justifying the discovery sought. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive Director at all times retains the authority to require the casino licensee to provide any requested document, statement, or video or audio evidence.

§ 175-10.1-3050 Amended or Supplemental Pleadings. The hearing examiner may, before submission of the case for decision, permit the filing of an amended or supplemental petition or response, including an amended or supplemental pleading that conforms to the evidence presented during the hearing. A request for permission to file an amended or supplemental pleading may be made orally during the hearing or in writing. If the request is in writing, a copy must be served on the opposing party. The hearing examiner thereafter shall provide the opposing party a reasonable opportunity to make objections thereto. If an application for leave to file an amended or supplemental pleading is granted, the hearing examiner must permit the parties to introduce additional evidence with respect to any new matter contained in the pleading.

§ 175-10.1-3055 Communications.

(a) Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters authorized by statute or regulation:
1. Neither a party nor his representative shall communicate, directly or indirectly, with any Commission member or the hearing examiner regarding any matter related to the hearing, except upon notice and opportunity to all parties to participate.
2. Neither a Commission member nor the hearing examiner shall communicate, directly or indirectly, with any party or his representative regarding any matter related to the hearing, except upon notice and opportunity to all parties to participate.

(b) This section does not preclude:
1. Any Commission member or the hearing examiner from consulting with Commission counsel concerning any matter related to the hearing.
2. A party or his counsel conferring with the hearing examiner, the Commission Chairman, or Commission counsel on procedural matters.

§ 175-10.1-3060 Default. The unexcused failure of a party to appear at the hearing may constitute a default and an admission of any facts that may have been alleged by the opposing party. The hearing examiner may take action based on such default or admission or on any other evidence without further notice to the defaulting party. If the hearing examiner takes action based on an admission, the record must include the evidence upon which the action is based.

§ 175-10.1-3065 [Reserved.] [Contempt.]

§ 175-10.1-3070 Burden of Proof. The person aggrieved by the decision of the Executive Director bears the burden of showing by a preponderance of the evidence that the decision made by the Executive Director pursuant to § 175-10.1-3001 should be reversed or modified.

§ 175-10.1-3075 Decision of the Hearing Examiner.

(a) No later than thirty (30) days after the hearing, the hearing examiner shall render a written decision on the merits that sustains, modifies or reverses the initial decision of the Executive Director.

(b) The decision of the hearing examiner must contain findings of fact and a determination of the issues presented.

(c) A copy of the decision must be served on each party. The decision must be accompanied by proof of service in the form of a certificate signed by an agent or employee of the Commission and stating the date and manner of service. The decision is effective and final upon service on all parties, unless otherwise ordered by the hearing examiner. If the decision is sent by mail, it will be presumed to have been served five calendar days after it is mailed.

§ 175-10.1-3080 Appeal to Commission.

(a) Any party aggrieved by a final decision of the hearing examiner may appeal to the Commission.

(b) The Commission's review will be limited to the evidence before the hearing examiner. The Commission may remand the case to the hearing examiner for additional evidence if sufficient reason exists for the failure to present the evidence at the hearing.

(c) The Commission may affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the hearing examiner.

(d) No later than thirty (30) days after hearing the appeal, unless the time is extended by the Commission, a copy of the Commission's decision must be served on each party.
The decision must be accompanied by proof of service in the form of a certificate signed by an agent or employee of the Commission and stating the date and manner of service. The decision is effective and final upon service upon all parties, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission. If the decision is sent by mail it will be presumed to have been served five calendar days after it is mailed.

§ 175-10.1-3085 Judicial Review. Judicial review of a final decision of the Commission may be had in accordance with applicable Commonwealth law.

§ 175-10.2-101 Commission to follow government Ethics Act. The Commission and its employees shall be subject to and follow the Government Ethics Act found in 1 CMC § 8501 et. seq.

§ 175-10.2-105 Responsibilities of Public Office. Individuals appointed to the Commission are agents of the public and serve for the benefit of the public. They shall uphold and act in accordance with the Constitution of the United States of America, the Constitution of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the rules, Regulations and policies pursuant to the Act and the Government Ethics Act.

§ 175-10.2-110 Commission Policies. Commissioners and staff shall comply fully with the policies and standard procedures approved by the Commission.

§ 175-10.2-115 Conflict of Interest. There is a public trust to be protected from the danger of conflict of interest.

(a) A conflict occurs when an official's responsibilities, duties or activities conflict with the official's private interests, whether they are of a business, family, social or other nature.

(b) A Commissioner has an automatic conflict of interest in matters affecting a Commissioner's spouse, children and siblings. A Commissioner must automatically refrain from voting or engaging in any discussions relating to such family members.

(c) Commissioners and Commission staff shall comply with the following Conflict of Interest restrictions:
1. Shall not use their office/staff to seek employment or conduct business.
2. Shall not use their position to obtain private gain or advantage for themselves, a relative or an entity in which they have a present or potential financial interest.
3. Shall not disclose or use confidential information that is not generally available to the public for his/her own or another person's financial benefit.
4. Shall not participate in transactions that they may influence if they know that a spouse, child, or sibling has a substantial financial interest.
5. Shall not use public funds, time or equipment for their own private gain, unless authorized by law.
6. Shall not participate in, vote on, influence or attempt to influence an official decision if they, or the business they are associated with, have a financial interest or can potentially benefit from the matter, unless the interest or benefit is incidental to their position or would normally accrue to them in their profession, occupation or class.
7. Shall not participate or engage in any conduct or activity that is prohibited by the Act.

§ 175-10.2-120 Political Activity. Each Commissioner, Executive Director and Commission staff must be aware of the rules that limit permissible political activity. The following is intended to highlight the kind of activities that can and cannot be engaged in.

(a) Permissible Activities:
1. Voting for the candidate of his/her choice.
2. Expressing opinions on all political subjects and candidates.
3. Membership in any political party, organization or club.
4. Making voluntary contributions to a political organization for its general expenditures.
5. Lobbying and supporting public, Legislative or other Constitutional amendments.

(b) Prohibited Activities:
1. Use of Commission funds, time, personnel or equipment for political activity unless that use is authorized by law or is incidental to a legally authorized or required activity.
2. Engaging in the discharge, promotion, demotion or changing of the status or compensation of any employee for supporting an official or candidate or promising or threatening to do so.
3. Use of their office or the Commission or influence to interfere with an election, or affect its results, or coerce the political action of any person or party.
4. Being obliged to contribute to any political fund, render any political service or be removed for refusing to do so.
5. Pressuring or coercing staff to participate in political activities or to support political parties or candidates under threat of losing one's employment.
6. Soliciting or receiving political contributions from anyone while on Commission time or on Commission or government property.

7. Campaigning for any candidate for public office during official working hours.

8. Promoting or opposing legislation relating to programs of departments on behalf of the Commission in contravention of Commission authority.

§ 175-10.2-125 Non-discrimination Policy.

(a) It is the policy of the Commission that discrimination, for or against any employee, because of race, creed, color, gender (including sexual harassment), sexual orientation, national origin, age, religion, political affiliation, organizational membership, veterans status, disability, or genetic information is prohibited and will not be tolerated. No adverse action or hiring decision shall be made on the basis of any of the above factors except that veterans status may be considered positively as permitted by law.

(b) The Commission shall maintain every workplace free from unlawful harassment, including sexual harassment. Any employee or official who engages in any act of discrimination or harassment on the basis of any of the above factors violates Commission policy, and such misconduct will subject the employee to corrective action ranging from counseling to disciplinary action up to and including termination. Such harassment by a non-employee (for example, a client or contractor) is also prohibited. The Commission shall not tolerate any such outside harassment and shall take necessary action to prevent its continuation or recurrence.

(c) Any employee who feels that he or she has been discriminated against on the basis of any of the above factors, or sexually harassed, should immediately report such incidents to a supervisor at any level without fear of reprisal. Confidentiality will be maintained to the extent permitted by the circumstances.

(d) An employer who receives a claim of discrimination or harassment in violation of this policy shall take such complaint seriously and immediately advise the Executive Director or the Commonwealth Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Coordinator of the situation. The Executive Director, with the assistance of the EEO Coordinator, if sought, will ensure that it is investigated promptly, privately, and with as much confidentiality as possible, consistent with the need to determine the facts. The investigation will be documented by an investigative report that will be retained in a confidential file by the Executive Director or EEO Coordinator. Any person accused of a violation shall be allowed the opportunity to rebut the charges.

(e) After determining the facts through the investigation, the Executive Director shall take corrective action as required by the circumstances. This may include counseling any employee, whether or not a violation has occurred; imposing an appropriate sanction, including disciplinary action; making sure that this policy is reiterated to all employees or any group. An employer, or any supervisory staff, who does not take appropriate action also violates this policy and exposes the Commonwealth government to liability.

Each employee shall use the email accounts established by the Office for all office communications. All email messages in office accounts are the property of the Office. Employees should have no expectation of privacy with regard to their use of the office email account, except for attorney-client privileged material. Legal precedent supports an employer’s right to access electronic email as the owner of the electronic email system, and consistent with such, the Office may access and/or monitor office email accounts as provided in this policy.

Email shall not be used to distribute attorney-client privileged material beyond the intended recipients.

9.6.3.1.2 Records Retention

Email messages are considered “public records” under the Open Government Act and, barring any applicable exception, are subject to public disclosure. Employees shall manage and maintain all email correspondence in accordance with the Office’s policy on records retention and destruction. Email messages can and will be accessible within the boundaries of the Open Government act, subject to the act’s limitations and exceptions to public disclosure.

9.6.3.1.3 Acceptable Uses
Email, including attachments, should be used in lieu of hard copy memoranda and other documents whenever possible in order to conserve resources and reduce costs.

The office email shall not be used for the following:

- To transmit content that promotes discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, gender, religion, sensory, mental, or physical disability, or sexual orientation;

Employees shall use the office email system to primarily conduct office business. Employees may use the office email system to conduct other business within the scope of their employment, such as work for the bar association or other public service work.

Employees may send incidental personal messages that are insignificant in cost and resource usage, provided that the messages comply with statements in this policy. These messages must not come at any cost to the Commonwealth, must not interfere with the performance of the employee's official duties, must be brief in duration, and must not compromise the security and integrity of Commonwealth information or software. Examples of incidental personal use include (but are not limited to):

- Notice of staff gatherings (lunches, birthdays, receptions, etc.)
- Agency-wide notifications that are used for communicating goodwill among employees (holiday greetings, congratulatory messages, etc.)

Email communications shall be professional in content. Employees should always be mindful that any transmitted email message could be printed and/or forwarded to others outside the Office, and that the content and tone of a message reflects on the Attorney General and the Office.

9.6.3.1.4 Security

Employees shall take precautions to prevent the unauthorized use of their office email accounts. Precautions include:

- Logging out of the office network before leaving the office for extended periods of time;
- Not leaving email displayed on monitors while away from the office;
- Periodically changing passwords and not disclosing them to others; and
- Using extreme caution when sending personal, confidential, or sensitive information via email.

Employees shall not read the email of an employee where there is no substantial business purpose for obtaining access to the communication of that employee. This also includes disclosure of other employees’ messages, internally or externally, solely for the purpose of embarrassing the sender or receiver.

Employees shall not send email under another employee’s name without that employee’s authorization. Sending a message using someone else’s computer and email session with permission and in compliance with this policy does not violate this policy. Doing so without permission is a violation.
9.6.3.1.5 Monitoring/Access

Other than normal audit trail activities, email monitoring or access shall not take place except when conducted as part of:

- An authorized training program or planned application design;
- An official investigation into suspected misuse or unlawful activities;

10 Inter-Agency Conflicts and Dispute Resolution

10.1 Inter-Agency Dispute Resolution

The Office of the Attorney General and the agencies to which it provides legal services share a common goal: to serve the interests of the citizens of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands effectively and efficiently. This goal can be accomplished best when agencies work together to achieve desired results. Disputes between agencies are costly, diverting time, money, and talent from program implementation to dispute resolution. When disputes do arise, the Commonwealth's citizens are best served by resolving those disputes without resorting to litigation or other formalized dispute resolution systems.

10.2 Complex, Legal, Factual, or Policy Issues

Disputes between agencies can involve complex, legal, factual or policy issues. While the role of the Attorney General's Office focuses primarily on legal issues, we must also strive to recognize and help resolve disputes involving other issues as well.

10.3 Attorney and Staff Role in Avoiding or Resolving Disputes

The Assistant Attorneys General and staff are expected to work in a collegial manner with each other and with agency representatives to explore and assess methods by which to avoid disputes among our client agencies, if possible, and to resolve them when they do arise. Emphasizing this responsibility should not be read as minimizing the role that agency staff play in avoiding or resolving disputes or suggesting that this responsibility is unilaterally that of the Office, nor does this detract from the attorney's duty to zealously represent their client's interests.

10.4 Amicus Brief

It is expected that use of this policy will sometimes serve to resolve disputes that might give rise to the need for an amicus brief by one government agency that opposes the position of another government agency. If a dispute is not resolved informally and litigation ensues, the Attorney General may authorize amicus participation if important policy considerations exist and such participation is deemed to be in public interest. In such a situation, an Assistant Attorney General may file an amicus brief on behalf of an agency if authorized to do so in a writing signed by the Attorney General.

10.5 Procedures for Implementation

10.5.1 Responsibility: Assistant Attorney General

• Identifies existing and potential disputes among government agencies, and attempts to work with colleagues and with client agencies to avoid or resolve them;

• When a dispute cannot be resolved, notifies the Attorney General or designee of the existence of and nature of the dispute, and the efforts made to resolve the matter;

• In working with colleagues, presents all relevant information, including known facts and legal research, in an open and straightforward manner, to ensure that, at a minimum, all information that could be discovered in litigation is provided.

• Initiates litigation involving a government agency only upon the express approval of the Attorney General or his designee.
• When litigation results, zealously advances arguments on behalf of the agency client.

• Conducts litigation in a manner that is efficient, fair, and respects the professionalism and dignity of government agency opponents. For example, to the extent that it would be consistent with ethical obligations, Assistant Attorneys General should stipulate to facts and narrow legal issues to expedite resolution of the dispute, and share information with representatives of government agencies to the maximum extent that would be required in discovery.

• Refrains from seeking sanctions, costs, or attorney’s fees against another Commonwealth agency unless approved by the Attorney General, and refrains from seeking to impose sanctions against another Assistant Attorney General.

• Files an amicus brief opposing the position of another government agency only upon written approval of the Attorney General.

10.5.2 Responsibility: Civil Division Chief

• Assures that agency staff at appropriate level have been apprised of and are involved in attempts to avoid or resolve a dispute.

• If litigation results, oversees the conduct of the litigation to assure that it is carried out consistent with this policy, and implements the appropriate separation of functions of Assistant Attorneys General to give confidence to the public that the matter is being handled fairly.

• Refrains from overseeing the conduct of litigation if it would result in a conflict of interest. In such cases, the Attorney General or his designee shall assign senior Assistant Attorneys General to oversee the conduct of litigation on behalf of the respective client agencies.

• Keeps the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General apprised of disputes and efforts to resolve them.
10.5.3 Responsibility: Chief Solicitor (Inter-Agency Dispute Coordinator)

- Develops forums and processes for Assistant Attorneys General and their client agencies to resolve the issues referred to them.

- May request assigned Assistant Attorneys General to supply a statement of agency’s position on the dispute that addresses both essential legal questions and material facts.

- When efforts by staff of the Office of the Attorney General does not resolve the dispute(s), works with the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General to further attempt to resolve the dispute(s).

10.5.4 Responsibility(s): Attorney General or Designee

- Approves the initiation of litigation between two or more government agencies if doing so is deemed in the public interest and all efforts, both within the Office and otherwise, to resolve the dispute have been unsuccessful.

- Reviews and approves request for amicus participation by one government agency which opposes the position of another government agency.

11 Intra-Office Coordination of Legal Issues/Screening for Conflicts

(Source: Rules of Professional Conduct RPC 1.11(c), 1.12(a), RPC 1.7(b))

11.1 Coordination of Client Advice and Litigation Concerning Common Legal Issues

The Office of the Attorney General encourages coordination of client advice and litigation concerning legal issues that are common among various divisions of the Office and our clients. The Office should not take inconsistent positions with respect to legal issues, unless doing so is necessary for individual Assistant Attorneys General to represent their respective clients fairly and responsibly and in a manner consistent with the Office’s established Inter-Agency Conflicts and Dispute Resolution Policy in section 10 and the Intra-Office Coordination of Legal Issues/Screening for Conflicts in this section.
11.2 Non-Exclusive List of Examples of Legal Issues Appropriate for Coordination

The Office relies upon the professional judgment of the Assistant Attorneys General in recognizing when an issue is appropriate for coordination. A non-exhaustive list of examples of the types of legal issues appropriate for coordination includes the following: (a) constitutional challenges to statutes; (b) issues arising under statutes or case law applicable to multiple government agencies (e.g., Administrative Procedures Act, Open Government Act, Government Ethics Code Act of 1992); (c) cases/issues being addressed by a division for an agency-client which also receives legal services by another division; and (d) federal issues involving Commonwealth-Federal relations.

11.3 Ability to Recognize When Legal Issues Are Appropriate for Coordination

The ability to recognize when legal issues are appropriate for coordination is an essential component of accomplishing the goal of this policy and requires knowledge of the work conducted by the various divisions of this office. The Office will provide training opportunities to Assistant Attorneys General to enhance identification of issues appropriate for coordination.

11.4 Staff Knowledge and Experience

Attorneys in the office have acquired a wealth of knowledge and experience in various fields of law. The diversity of our collective experience is a powerful resource that can be best utilized by identifying each attorney’s particular areas of expertise and their assigned agency clients, and making this information available to all office staff.

11.5 Procedures for Implementation

11.5.1 Responsibility: Chief Solicitor

The Chief Solicitor shall:
• Annually distribute surveys asking Assistant Attorneys General to identify areas in which they have acquired substantial experience;

• Compile and annually update a subject-experience list from the responses obtained in the annual surveys; and

• Distribute updated subject-experience lists to attorneys in the Office.

11.5.2 Responsibility: Deputy Attorney General or Designee

The Deputy Attorney General shall:

• Maintain a current list of the primary counsel for each client agency; and

• Establish meeting dates, set agenda, facilitate communication, and maintain a brief/advice bank on agency issues.

11.5.3 Responsibility: Civil Division Chief

The Civil Division Chief shall:

• Provide a description of issues appropriate for coordination in monthly division reports to the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General, which will be shared with the Management Committee;

• Identify issues being worked on by the division which apply to more than one division and consult with the respective division chief(s) to ascertain whether Assistant Attorneys General can ethically discuss the issues and coordinate efforts to better assure consistency in addressing the issues; and

• Identify issues that might be resolved in an inconsistent manner due to representation of agency clients with conflicting positions, and implement the Interagency Dispute Resolution Policy where appropriate.

11.5.4 Responsibility: Criminal Division Chief

The Criminal Division Chief shall:

• Coordinate with the Public Auditor, the Department of Public Safety and the Attorney General’s Investigation Division and takes appropriate action on criminal matters;
• Provide a description of issues appropriate for coordination and response in monthly division reports to the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General on a separate page, which will be shared with the Management Committee.

• Identify issues being worked on by the division that apply to more than one division and consult with the respective division chief(s) to ascertain whether Assistant Attorneys General can ethically discuss the issues and coordinate efforts to better assure consistency in addressing the issue.

11.5.5 Responsibility: Assistant Attorney General
Assistant Attorneys General shall:

• Identify issues which may be appropriate for coordination and notify his/her division chief, and, if the issues involve the constitutionality of a statute, the Chief Solicitor, of such issues;

• Consult as needed with individuals identified on subject-experience roster as having experience with issues on which they are working; and

• Respond in a reasonably prompt manner to provide information and guidance when contacted by a colleague regarding a matter in which the attorney has significant experience as indicated on the subject-experience roster.

11.6 Screening for Conflicts/Separation of Functions
The Office of the Attorney General is committed to assuring that staff members perform their duties consistent with the Rules of Professional Conduct and free of conflicts of interest. Individual members of the staff will be screened from participation in matters when such screening is required by the Rules of Professional Conduct. Individuals may also be screened from matters when circumstances give the appearance of a conflict.

11.6.1 Formal Screening
Formal screening should be considered under the following circumstances:
11.6.1.1 Prior Personal and Substantial Involvement

An Assistant Attorney General who, prior to employment with the Office, was involved personally and substantially in a matter in which the government is also involved should be screened from participating in that matter on behalf of the Commonwealth, unless the former client gives informed consent, confirmed in writing.

11.6.1.2 Prior Adjudicative Involvement

An Assistant Attorney General who, prior to employment with the Office, was a judge, adjudicative officer, or law clerk and, in that capacity, participated personally and substantially in a matter in which the government is involved can participate in the matter on behalf of the government only if all parties consent in writing after disclosure. If all parties do not consent, the Assistant Attorney General should be screened from the matter.

11.6.1.3 Adverse Government Agencies

There are occasional situations where multiple Assistant Attorneys General participate in the same matter, either in different capacities or representing different government agencies whose positions in the matter are truly adverse. Screening is not necessarily required by the RPC in such situations since the government and not the individual agency is the client. However, imposing a level of separation between the activities of those attorneys in such circumstances both eliminates any question of compliance with the Rules of Professional Conduct and assures the public that the Office is carrying out its responsibilities in a fair and equitable manner. In addition, screening may be used to avoid impermissible ex parte communications under the Administrative Procedure Act.

11.6.1.4 Personal or Financial Interest

There may be situations where an Assistant Attorney General or other employee, or a relative or household member of an employee, has a personal or financial interest in a matter being handled by the Office. In such situations, the employee should not participate in the matter to ensure that the matter is being handled free of any actual or perceived influence.
by such individual. Formal screening may not be required, depending on the circumstances.

11.6.2 “Intermediate Screening”

Occasionally, the Office of the Attorney General is involved in matters that affect a broad category of personnel that may include members of the staff that are working on the matter, or their relatives or household members. Examples include actions affecting the rights and responsibilities of public employees, members of certain professions, residents of a particular community, etc. The fact that individual employees of the Office may be affected by the outcome of the matter as part of a larger class does not preclude them from working on the matter. In some circumstances, however, an individual employee may believe that his interest (or the interests of his relatives or household members) in the matter are such that the employee cannot fulfill his responsibility to protect the interests of the government, thus creating a conflict. Employees shall inform their supervisor if a conflict arises in this fashion, and the supervisor shall determine if intermediate screening is appropriate.

11.6.3 Staff Located in Same Division or Same Physical Office Location

11.6.3.1 Separate Files

Separate files will be created for screened matters. There should be a conspicuous indication on the outside of the file that named individual(s) are not to have access to the file. The file should be physically separated from the regular filing system to which the screened staff routinely have access. Electronic files for screened matters will be password protected; no screened employee will have access to the files.

11.6.3.2 Support Staff

Support staff assigned to work on a screened matter should be different from those who work with the screened Assistant Attorney General.

11.6.3.3 Written Notice

Written notice shall be given to screened staff and to those working on the screened matter, including support staff, that named individuals are screened and that the matter is not to be discussed in the presence of such individual(s). The notice should include directions about what information can be made available to screened staff (such as the status of matter) and the process through which the information can be obtained.

11.6.3.4 Supervisors

If the screened staff would normally supervise the screened matter, an alternative supervisory arrangement should be made with respect to the screened matter.

11.6.3.5 Ongoing Screening

If the circumstances indicate that screening is appropriate in a significant number of cases on an on-going basis, these arrangements should be institutionalized as part of routine operations in the affected divisions.

11.6.4 Procedures for Implementation

11.6.4.1 Responsibility: All Staff

All staff shall:

- Be sensitive to situations described above that indicate that screening or other separation of functions should be considered.
- Report potential conflicts to the appropriate supervisor;
- Adhere to instructions regarding screening;
- If a screen is compromised, report such to the appropriate supervisor and follow remedial instructions.

11.6.4.2 Responsibility: Hiring Coordinator(s)

The hiring coordinator shall determine whether newly hired Assistant Attorneys General or other employees are required to be screened from particular matters and, if so, notify the chief of the division handling the matter and the division to which the new staff is assigned.

11.6.4.3 Responsibility: Division Chief

- Ensures that screening or other separation-of-function mechanism is implemented in circumstances where appropriate.
• Upon becoming aware of a staff person who or a matter that should be subject to screening or other separation-of-function mechanism, implements such and/or notifies the division chief of other affected divisions of the situation.

• Monitors the effectiveness of techniques used for screening and other separation-of-function mechanisms, and modifies as necessary.

• Reports situations or issues relating to the screening of conflicts to the Attorney General or his designee.

• If a screen or other separation-of-function mechanism is compromised, ensures that appropriate notification is made if required by the applicable the Rules of Professional Conduct and reestablishes the screen or other separation-of-function mechanism in an appropriate manner.

• Ensures that Assistant Attorneys General who leave the Office are advised that notice required by RPC 1.11 should be addressed to the Office of the Attorney General, as the “appropriate government agency.”

11.6.4.4  Responsibility: Management Committee

The Management Committee is responsible for monitoring the office-wide implementation of this policy.

11.7  Recusal and Affidavit of Prejudice

11.7.1  Full and First Access to the Courts for Dispute Resolution

It is the policy of the Office of the Attorney General that persons and business entities shall have full and first access to the courts for resolution of disputes with government agencies as provided by law.

11.7.2  Requests for Assignment of Judges

Once a trial judge or hearing officer has been assigned to handle a matter involving the government, a request for assignment of a different judge, through the use of an affidavit of prejudice, shall be used only in exceptional situations. Requests to file an affidavit will be reviewed and considered by the respective division chief and the Attorney General on a case-by-case basis. Requests must include specific reasons supporting recusal, i.e., previous experience involving similar interests, issues, government agencies, parties, or the same assistant attorney general, along with the government agency’s concerns about impartiality.

11.7.3 Procedures for Implementation

11.7.3.1 Responsibility: Assistant Attorney General

• If an Assistant Attorney General handling a lawsuit on behalf of the government is aware of any information or factors which a judge or hearing officer assigned to hear a particular case should or may wish to consider as a basis for a recusal from handling a case, he or she shall consult with the division chief to determine if the Office should notify the judge/hearing officer and opposing counsel of the information for due consideration.

• The Assistant Attorney General must obtain approval from the Division Chief and the Attorney General before filing a request for reassignment of a judge or hearing officer.

11.7.3.2 Responsibility: Division Chief

The division chiefs shall review requests for recusal of judges. If the respective division chief determines that seeking recusal is justified, he or she shall submit the request to the Attorney General or his or her designee for approval.

12.1 Consistency in Leave Management

In an effort to ensure consistency in leave management, Civil and Excepted Service employees of the Attorney General’s Office shall adhere to the following policies. These internal proceedings shall not be deemed to create or restrict leave policies otherwise established or restricted by law or regulation.
12.2 Approval of Leave

The Attorney General or his designee must approve leave for employees of this Office. Approval must be made in writing on Form OPM-11.

12.3 Exhaustion of Accrued Annual Leave Hours within the Year

All employees are encouraged to use their accrued annual leave hours within the year in which it is accrued. There will be no lump-sum payment of annual leave at the end of a contract period or in the event of a voluntary separation of employment, unless otherwise approved by the Attorney General.

12.4 Use of Form OPM-11 Required

All requests for leave must be made on Form OPM-11, which may be obtained from the Administrative Support Division supervisor. No employee may take leave without prior approval from the Attorney General or designee. Form OPM-11 is attached as Appendix B.

12.5 Types of Leave

12.5.1 Administrative Leave

15.3.3 Fact-Based Determination

Distinguishing between conduct that constitutes unlawful discrimination and conduct that is purely personal or social without a discriminatory work effect requires a determination based on all of the facts pertaining to the situation. Initiating a complaint in bad faith may result in disciplinary action. A finding for the accused does not necessarily constitute a finding that the complaint was made in bad faith.

15.3.4 Informal Procedure

15.3.4.1 Initiation

A complainant may initiate a complaint by contacting any supervisory employee, who shall immediately inform the Attorney General.

If the Attorney General is the subject of the complaint, the Deputy Attorney General shall substitute for the Attorney General in the complaint process.

15.4.1 Possible Remedial Actions

Remedial actions will depend upon the severity of the incident. A confidential record of the investigation and settlement will be kept on file in the Office.

15.4.2 Examples of Possible Sanctions

Examples of possible sanctions include, but are not limited to: participation in developmental educational programs related to sexual harassment; warning letters; poor-job-performance ratings impacting salary; work assignment; promotion forfeiture; non-renewal of contract, and suspension, expulsion, or termination. The Attorney General recognizes the importance and value of employees reporting government misconduct without fear of retaliation or reprisal, and supports the reporting of misconduct to the Office of the Public Auditor as outlined below.

23.3 Who Can Be a Whistleblower?

A whistleblower is entitled to protection from reprisal or retaliatory action. “Whistleblower” includes an employee who provides information to the Auditor during the course of an investigation, as well as the employee who makes the original report. If a whistleblower believes he or she has been the subject of such action, the whistleblower may file a claim with the Office of the Public Auditor. The Office of the Public Auditor will investigate the claim and take appropriate action.

TO: ALL EMPLOYEES

FROM: Attorney General

SUBJECT: Leave Policy – All Personnel (Civil and Excepted Service)

In an effort to ensure consistency in leave management I am hereby establishing a leave policy for the both Civil Service and Excepted Service employees of the Office of the Attorney General. These are internal procedures and shall not be deemed to create or restrict leave policies otherwise established or restricted by law or regulation.

All employees are encouraged to utilize their accrued annual leave hours within the year. Subject to the provisions of NMIAC §10-10-210(h), (i), and (j) which are applicable to contract renewals, there will be no lump sum payment of annual leave at the end of a contract period or in the event of a voluntary separation of employment.

Although, I have the authority to approve leave for employees of this office, I am delegating this authority to the Deputy Attorney General to review and approve leave applications for the Civil Division staff and attorneys and Criminal Division staff. The Chief of the Criminal Division is hereby authorized to review and approve leave applications for prosecutors, staff of the Attorney General Investigative Division and Victim Services Unit.

All requests for leave must be made utilizing Form OPM-11 which is attached for your reference. No employee shall take leave without prior approval from their immediate supervisor. Assumptions that leave can be taken after an employee has submitted the leave application shall not be deemed as approved.

Annual Leave
Requests for annual leave must be submitted to their immediate supervisor two (2) days in advance prior to taking the leave hours. Arrangements must be made for alternate coverage for pre-scheduled court appearances and other time sensitive matters to which an employee has been previously assigned.

Sick Leave
Sick leave may be used whenever an employee on permanent status is to be absent from duty because of illness or injury or because of quarantine of the family and/or residence. Use of sick leave is appropriately for medicinal, dental, optometric, or mental health counseling or treatment. An employee who is absent from work for a period of three (3) consecutive days for one or more of the foregoing reasons must submit a doctor's note for the period the employee was absent. Subject to the provisions set forth below regarding Family Medical Leave Act benefits, a failure to furnish a doctor's certification will be deemed an Absence Without Leave (AWOL).

Advance Leave

Employees may avail of leave advance after exhausting all sick and annual leave. Employees are required to write a letter of request to the Attorney General and the Attorney General will consider said request in good faith. Advance leave will be governed by the provisions of the applicable Civil or Excepted Service regulations applicable to the requesting employee.

FMLA

In an event of a “Triggering Event” (as defined below), the Office of Personnel Management will be consulted for a determination of FMLA eligibility. The Office of the Attorney General will comply with such determination.

FMLA leave may be “triggered” by one or more of the following, each of which shall be considered a “Triggering Event.”

A. Request. When the need for FMLA leave is foreseeable, thirty (30) days advance written notice is required. When thirty (30) days notice is not possible, you must notify your immediate supervisor, the Deputy Attorney General and the timekeeper of your request as soon as is practicable.

B. Illness. When you have called in sick three (3) consecutive days due to a serious health condition of yourself or an immediate family member; or Constructive Notice. When the Office of Attorney General is “on notice” that your absence may be for a FMLA qualifying reason.

For your reference, a copy of regulations encompassing leave is provided for your reference. For Civil Service employees NMIAC §10-20.2-601-650 and for Excepted Service employees NMIAC §10-10-215-290.

Your cooperation to this policy is appreciated.

EDWARD MANIBUSAN
§ 10-10-210 Annual Leave

(a) Annual leave, or vacation, shall be granted for the purpose of rest and relaxation. Except as provided in this section, employees who have less than three years of creditable service shall earn annual leave at the rate of four hours per pay period. Employees with three but less than six years of creditable service shall earn annual leave at the rate of six hours per pay period. Employees with six or more years of creditable service shall earn annual leave at the rate of eight hours per pay period.

(b) Activity heads, division directors, deputy secretaries, executive secretaries, special assistants of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and department heads, medical doctors, practicing attorneys, and executive directors of principal boards and commissions shall earn annual leave at the rate of eight hours per pay period.

(c) Annual leave accrual rate per pay period for health care professionals, engineers, and other professionally qualified excepted service employees with advanced degrees and/or exceptional skills or experience shall be at a rate not to exceed eight hours, and:

(1) Based, specific to each employee, upon:

(i) The critical need to fill the position;

(ii) The availability of qualified applicants; and

(iii) The amount and quality of related education, training, and experience possessed by the employee.

(2) An employee employed in the first year of the initial contract shall not be entitled to use annual leave during the first ninety days of employment. Annual leave earned during this period will be credited to the employee upon completion of this initial period. This restriction does not apply to employees employed on an immediately subsequent contract.

(d) Excepted service employees shall accrue annual leave at the rate set forth in their employment contract. If the employee takes leave without pay (LWOP) or is in an absence without leave (AWOL) status there will be no leave accrual for that pay period.

(e) Annual leave may be used only upon prior written approval of the employer and will be scheduled based upon the needs of the employer. Annual leave requests must be made in advance, except in cases of bona fide emergencies, on a leave request form provided by the Office of Personnel Management. All annual leave requests must be approved by the immediate supervisor and division director. In smaller organizations where division may not exist, the heads of such organizations shall approve annual leave. The employer will approve all properly submitted leave requests unless the needs of the government prevent the absence of the employee.

(f) Employees serving on government boards and commissions who elect to take leave without pay during their performance of duties on a board or commission shall accrue annual leave for that service time.

(g) Annual leave must be utilized during the contract period. Except as provided in subsections (h), (j), and (k) below, any annual leave not utilized will be converted to sick leave at the end of the employment term. No cash payment will be made for unused annual leave, except as provided for in subsections (j) and (k) below.

(h) If an offer and acceptance for a new employment contract is agreed upon, or if an excepted service employee accepts conversion to civil service status, accrued and unused annual leave credits from the prior period of employment, not to exceed 160 hours, shall be carried over to the new employment contract, or status in cases of conversion to civil service status. Notwithstanding this limit on leave, in order to comply with the 160-hour limit, due to the critical nature and need for the services by the Commonwealth government, the employer may allow, with the approval of the Director of Personnel, the employee to accumulate up to 240 hours of annual leave and carry this amount over into a subsequent employment period. Unused annual leave in excess of the limits cited above will be converted to sick leave.

(i) Employees converting from the civil service to excepted service status will be authorized to carry over not more than 160 hours of annual leave. Hours in excess of this amount will be converted to sick leave if not used prior to conversion.

(j) The Director of Personnel may, upon the recommendation of the employer and with the concurrence of the Governor, approve a lump-sum cash payment of up to 160 hours of unused annual leave in cases of involuntary separation due to reasons of bona fide personal emergency beyond the control of the employee.
§ 10-10-215 Sick Leave

Sick leave shall accrue to the employee at the rate of four hours per pay period, provided the employee has been in pay status as required by the excepted service employment contract. If the employee takes leave without pay (LWOP) or is in an absence without leave (AWOL) status there will be no leave accrual for that pay period. Government employees serving on government boards and commissions who elect to take leave without pay (LWOP) during such performance shall accrue leave for that service time.

(a) The employee is entitled to use accrued sick leave from the time sick leave is first earned.

(b) Any absence on sick leave where the employee misses more than three continuous days of work must have the illness verified by a note from a medical doctor in order to claim sick leave.

(c) The employee is not entitled to any payment for accrued and unused sick leave upon completion of an employment contract or termination of employment.

(d) If an offer and acceptance for a new period of employment is agreed upon under a new employment contract/appointment, all accrued and unused sick leave credits from the prior contract/appointment will be carried over, provided that if the employee is separated from government service for a period longer than three years, the employee shall be divested of accumulated sick leave.

(e) If the employer has reasonable grounds to believe that the employee is misusing sick leave, or requesting sick leave for purposes other than illness, the employer may request proof of illness from a health care professional for any period of illness. If the certification is not provided, or is unpersuasive, the supervisor may deny the sick leave request.

(f) Sick leave may be accumulated without limit.

(g) Excepted service employees are eligible for the sick leave bank program pursuant to applicable regulations adopted on October 16, 1997 and published in the Commonwealth Register, Vol. 19, No. 11, on November 15, 1997, at pages 15748-15757. (See NMIAC title 100, chapter 50).

§ 10-10-240 Court Leave

The government encourages its employees to fulfill their obligations as citizens and residents of the Commonwealth and the federal government. Employees who are called to jury duty or as witnesses shall present their summons to their immediate supervisor together with a completed request for leave for his signature and processing. Employees using court leave to cover the period of absence shall turn over to the Commonwealth Treasurer such jury or witness fees (as distinct from expense allowances) as they receive from the court or summoning party. Expense allowances paid the employee for whatever purpose may be retained by the employee to defray the expenses for which granted.
§ 10-10-245 Compassionate Leave

Full-time excepted service employees may be granted compassionate leave of no more than five workdays, not necessarily consecutive, in cases of death in the immediate family of the employee. For the purpose of this section, the term immediate family shall include a mother, father, brother, sister, spouse, immediate offspring (natural and culturally or legally adopted), stillborn child, grandfather, grandmother, grandchild, mother-in-law, or father-in-law. Compassionate leave must be taken within eighteen days after the death of the immediate family member.

§ 10-10-250 Miscarriage Leave

Miscarriage leave shall be granted to an excepted service employee who is absent from work because of miscarriage or the subsequent convalescence. Such miscarriage leave shall not exceed five work days, and shall be in addition to any accumulated sick leave. An employee who wishes to claim miscarriage leave must have the miscarriage verified by a note from a medical doctor in order to claim miscarriage leave. Any additional leave taken after five work days shall be charged against accumulated sick leave.

§ 10-10-255 Pregnancy Disability Leave

Pregnancy disability leave shall be granted to an excepted service employee who is absent from work because of childbirth or the subsequent convalescence. Such pregnancy disability leave shall not exceed thirteen work days, shall be in addition to any maternity leave or accumulated sick leave, and shall be any thirteen work days encompassing the date of childbirth. Any additional leave taken for such childbirth purposes shall be charged against accumulated sick leave. Pregnancy disability leave shall be available to an excepted service employee who suffers a still birth.

§ 10-10-260 Maternity and Paternity Leave

Maternity or paternity leave shall be granted to an excepted service employee who is absent from work because of the employee (maternity leave) or the employee's wife (paternity leave) giving birth. § 10-20.2-620 Leaves with Pay

Notice
Portions of this section may be superseded. See the Commission Comment.

(a) Annual Leave.

(1) Annual leave or vacation shall be granted for the purpose of rest and relaxation. Personnel Service System employees who have less than three years of creditable service shall earn annual leave at the rate of four hours per pay period, except that newly appointed employees shall undergo a waiting period of ninety calendar days before being credited with annual leave. Employees with three but less than six years of creditable service shall earn annual leave at the rate of six hours per pay period. Employees who have six or more years of creditable service shall earn annual leave at the rate of eight hours per pay period.

(2) Annual leave requests of more than three working days must be made in advance on a leave request form. All annual leave requests must be approved by the employee's division head upon recommendation of such employee's immediate supervisor. In smaller organizations where divisions may not exist, the heads of such organizations shall approve annual leave. A denial of request for annual leave is subject to employees' grievance rights

(b) Maximum Accumulation. The maximum accumulation of annual leave for Personnel Service System employees shall be three hundred sixty hours. Accrued annual leave in excess of 360 hours remaining at the end of the leave year shall be converted to sick leave.

(c) Sick Leave.

(1) Sick leave shall be allowed whenever the employee on permanent status is to be absent from duty because of illness or injury or because of quarantine of the family and/or residence. Use of sick leave is appropriate only for medical, dental, optometric, or mental health counseling or treatment which the employee personally must undergo.

(2) If an employee is absent because of illness, injury, or quarantine in excess of three days, the employee may be required to furnish a certification as to the incapacity from the attending physician. The appointing authority may require certification for such other period(s) of illness as is appropriate.

(3) If the required certification is not furnished, all absence which would have been covered by such certification shall be indicated on the time and attendance record and the payroll as absent without leave (AWOL).

(4) Employees on permanent status shall earn sick leave at the rate of four hours for each biweekly pay period in which they are in pay status for the entire ten days. Sick leave may be accumulated and carried over to succeeding leave years without limitation. A report showing the accrued sick leave balance will be provided the employee each pay period.

(5) The generality of the foregoing is subject to the following special provisions:

(i) Falsification of an illness report shall be considered sufficient cause for disciplinary action, including dismissal from the government service for repeated offenses.

(ii) Sick leave with pay shall be allowed during leaves of absence or vacations; provided, however, that any sick leave taken by an employee while on vacation must be supported by a certificate issued by the attending physician. No employee shall be allowed to undertake gainful employment while on sick leave status.

(iii) Sick leave with pay may be granted in advance of earning sick leave as provided under § 10-20.2-620(d). If an employee is separated from the service without having earned all of the sick leave allowed and taken, there shall be deducted from any money due the employee at the time of separation an amount equal to salary for the period of unearned sick leave allowed and taken.

(6) Sick leave accrued for service with the government shall vest in the employee upon accrual and shall remain vested so long as the individual is employed by the government, provided that if such employee is separated from government service (other than through retirement) for a period longer than three years, the employee shall be divested of accumulated sick leave. (See § 10-20.2-640)

(d) Leave Advance.

(1) Where, for good reason, an employee on permanent or limited term status requires additional annual or sick leave in addition to the amounts accrued, the Director of Personnel, with recommendation of the appointing authority, may grant advance leave up to a maximum of one-half of the total earnable leave credits for which the employee is eligible for one year from the date the application is received, or, in the case of limited term employees, up to a maximum of one-half of the total earnable leave credits for which the employee is eligible during the remainder of the employment term, whichever is shorter. Subsequent accrued leave earnings shall serve to replace the amount of advance leave granted and taken. Request for leave advance must be in writing from the employee with recommendation from the appointing authority.

(2) Leave advance granted and taken:

(i) Constitutes a legal contract between the employee and the government; and

(ii) Must be repaid, even if the employee separates from government service. Recovery of advance leave that is unpaid may be through the government's assumption of employee's accrued unused leave, payroll deductions, matched reduction of service time, and/or recourse to the courts.

(e) Training and Education Leave. Leaves for the purpose of job-related training and education may be granted employees on permanent status for a period not to exceed one year, by the Personnel Officer with the recommendation of the appointing authority. No training and educational leave, outside of the CNMI, shall be approved if such training is available locally shall be subject to immediate decertification and appropriate disciplinary actions(s).*

*So in original, see the commission comment to this section.

(l) Compassionate Leave. Employees on permanent or limited term may be granted compassionate leave with pay of no more than five consecutive work days in cases of death in the immediate family of the employee. For the purpose of this subpart, the term “immediate family” shall be defined as an employee’s mother, father, brother, sister, spouse, immediate off-spring (natural and culturally or legally adopted), grandfather, grandmother, grandchild, mother-in-law, or father-in-law. Compassionate leave must be taken within eighteen days after the death of the immediate family member. The appointing authority is responsible for approving compassionate leave requests.

(g) Administrative Leaves. An absence from duty administratively authorized, without loss of pay and without charge to accrued leave, is administrative leave. The governor, appointing authorities or their designees have the responsibility for approving administrative leave requests. The following are the three general classes into which administrative leaves fall:

(1) Administrative leave is absence authorized under emergency conditions beyond the control of management. e.g., typhoons, or for participation in civic activities of interest to the government, or employment connected examinations, or for such reasons as the Governor may determine (such as a shortened work day on Christmas Eve).

(2) Administrative leave related to disciplinary actions. Managers may place an employee in non-working status with pay for up to three work days pending preparation of a notice of proposed suspension for up to thirty calendar days or removal from the Personnel Service.

(3) Administrative leave may be granted to employees serving on government boards and commissions, provided such employees do not receive compensation from the boards and commissions.

(h) Court Leave. The government encourages its employees to fulfill their obligations as citizens of the Commonwealth. Thus, employees who are called upon to serve as jurors may, at their option, be granted court leave for such period as the jury may be impaneled. Employees who are called to jury duty shall present their juror summons to their immediate supervisor together with a completed request for leave, for the supervisor’s signature and processing. Employees who serve as jurors using court leave to cover the period of absence shall turn over to the Commonwealth Treasurer such jury fees (as distinct from expense allowances) as they receive from the court. Expense allowances paid the employee for whatever purpose may be retained by the employee to defray the expenses for which granted. An employee subpoenaed as witness, except as a government witness, shall charge such absence to annual leave or leave without pay. Court leave shall be granted to an employee subpoenaed in litigation in which the government has no interest, to serve as a witness in the employee's present or past official capacity as a government employee and who may be required to present government records in testimony. Such employee must inform the appointing authority of the required testimony as soon as possible after being subpoenaed.

(i) Military Leave. Military leaves of absence with pay, not to exceed fifteen working days in any calendar year, regardless of the number of training periods in the year, may be granted by the Personnel Officer to employees on permanent status who are members of the United States National Guard and reserve components of the United States Armed Forces, when directed under orders issued by proper military authority. Administrative leave will not be granted in order to extend leave time for any additional training days.

(j) Maternity Leave. Maternity leave shall be granted to a female employee on permanent or limited term status who is absent from work because of confinement for childbirth. The appointing authority shall have the responsibility for approving maternity leave requests. Such maternity leave shall not exceed fifteen work days, shall be in addition to any accumulated sick leave, and shall be any fifteen work days encompassing the date of childbirth. Any additional leave taken for such childbirth purposes shall be charged against accumulated sick leave.

(k) Paternity Leave. Paternity leave shall be granted to a male employee on permanent or limited term status who is absent from work because of his wife's confinement for childbirth. Such paternity leave shall not exceed two work days encompassing the date of childbirth. The appointing authority shall have the responsibility for approving paternity leave requests.

History/Comment [Expand]

§ 10-20.2-625 Leaves Without Pay

(a)(1) An employee on permanent status may be granted leave without pay not to exceed ninety consecutive work days if the appointing authority considers it justified. Leave without pay may be extended up to ninety additional consecutive work days ONLY with the approval of the Personnel Officer, upon recommendation by the appointing authority. Such leave without pay may be granted to permit the employee to attend to important family affairs, such as settling an estate or for justifiable personal or business reasons.

(2) An employee desiring extended leave without pay shall prepare a memorandum of explanation addressed to the immediate supervisor explaining in detail the reasons for the request.

(b) Training and Education Leave. Employees on permanent status who wish to pursue their education on a full-time basis without financial assistance by the government, may be granted leaves of absence without pay for a period not to exceed one year. Such employees shall have the right to return to their positions at the satisfactory conclusion of their education or training, and their service anniversary dates shall be adjusted by the amount of leave without pay taken. The Personnel Officer is responsible for approving or disapproving requests for training and education leave, upon recommendation by the appointing authority.
(c) Leave Without Pay in Extension of Annual or Sick Leave. Employees on permanent status may be granted leave without pay (LWOP) for the purpose of extending annual or sick leave. When sick leave is so extended, the attending physician must certify to the necessity of the extension. The Personnel Officer is responsible for approving or disapproving requests for leave without pay, upon recommendation by the appointing authority.

(d) Tardiness.

(1) At the end of each pay period tardiness shall be charged to leave without pay (LWOP) or absence without leave (AWOL). In respect to each incident of tardiness,

(i) If the period of lateness is less than one hour it will be charged to LWOP.

(ii) If the period of lateness is more than one hour it will be charged to AWOL.

(2) The period of tardiness shall be calculated in the same manner as hours worked are calculated for time keeping purposes.

(e) Extended Military Leave. The federal Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Act (USERRA) generally requires the Commonwealth government to provide extended military leave for its career employees, regardless of whether the service is voluntary or involuntary. The cumulative length of all absences due to military leave and extended military leave shall not exceed five years, unless extended for good reason documented in writing by the appointing authority. The employee must give advance notice to the appointing authority, unless military necessity or circumstances make this impossible or unreasonable. In most cases, the employee is guaranteed reinstatement rights and certain seniority rights upon return from leave. The employee must also comply with requests for documentation and with the requirements of this subchapter regarding the timing of applications for reemployment. For details, employees and appointing authorities should contact the U.S. Department of Labor.

(f) FMLA Leave.

(1) The federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA) entitles employees who have worked for the Commonwealth for at least one year and who worked at least 1,250 hours over the previous 12 months to take up to 12 weeks of LWOP for any of the following reasons:

(i) To care for the employee’s child after birth or placement for adoption or foster care;

(ii) To care for the employee’s spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or

(iii) For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee’s job.

(2) At the option of the employee or the employing agency, annual leave, sick leave, maternity leave, or paternity leave may be substituted for LWOP for FMLA purposes. All leave qualifying under the FMLA shall be documented as FMLA leave either before it is taken or promptly thereafter. In most cases, participation in the government group health insurance program shall continue during FMLA leave. Agencies should contact the U.S. Department of Labor for detailed guidance regarding the requirements of the FMLA.

Employees shall accrue annual leave and sick leave for each biweekly pay period in which they are in pay status for the entire ten days; otherwise there shall be no accrual for such period. Provided, however, employees serving on government boards and commissions who elect to take leave without pay (LWOP) during such performance shall accrue leave for that service time. Part-time employees with regular scheduled tours of duty of forty to seventy hours during a biweekly pay period will accrue annual and sick leave at one-half the rate of full-time employees and will be eligible for other paid leaves, as provided in § 10-20.2-620 at this rate. Part-time employees with regular scheduled tours of duty of less that forty hours during a biweekly pay period will not accrue annual or sick leave benefits or be eligible for the other paid leave benefits. Part-time employees must be in a pay status for their full regular scheduled tour of duty for the entire ten days, otherwise there shall be no accrual for such period.

§ 10-20.2-635 Unauthorized Leave

(a) Unauthorized leave (absent without leave, AWOL) is absence from duty without appropriate authorization. Employees who are absent from duty without prior approval, except in bona fide emergencies, shall be charged as being AWOL. Employees who are AWOL are subject to loss of pay and possible disciplinary action.

(b) If an employee is absent because of illness, injury, or quarantine in excess of three days, the employee may be required to furnish a certification as to the incapacity from the attending physician. The appointing authority may require certification for such other period(s) of illness as is appropriate. If the required certification is not furnished, all absence which would have been covered by such certification shall be indicated on the time and attendance record and the payroll as absent without leave (AWOL). (See § 10-20.2-620(c)).

§ 10-20.2-640 Disposition of Leave upon Separation

(a) Annual Leave.

(1) An employee separated from the Personnel Service for any reason shall receive a lump-sum payment for all annual leave accrued to the employee's credit and remaining unused at the time of separation. If the employee returns to duty in any capacity with the government before the accumulated term of leave would have expired, had it been liquidated in the normal course of employment, the employee must return to the government the gross value of such unused leave and have those hours of leave re-credited to the employee's annual leave account.

(2) For example, if an employee has 360 hours annual leave to his credit upon separation, that represents 45 days of annual leave. If the employee returns to government employment before the passage of 45 work days, the employee is required to make a refund for the unexpired term of leave remaining.

(3) If the employee in the above example separates from government employment December 31, is offered an opportunity to return to duty with the same classification and pay, accepts, and returns to work March 15, 34 work days or 272 hours would have elapsed (one holiday occurred in February) between separation and return to duty. Such employee would be required to repay to the government the value of 88 work hours, the difference between the 360

accumulated hours granted through lump-sum payment, and the 272 hours of elapsed time between separation and return to duty. Repayment may be through lump-sum cash prior to resuming duty status, payroll deduction or assigning to the government all annual leave accrued subsequent to returning to duty until the repayment is completed.

(b) Sick Leave. An employee separated from the Personnel Service for any reason shall have all sick leave accrued to the employee's account held in the leave records for three years. Should the person be reemployed in the Personnel Service at any time during that three year period, the sick leave balance shall be re-credited to the employee's sick leave account and available for use from the first day of reemployment. Provided, however, that an employee separated from the Personnel Service for retirement purposes, and whose unused sick leave has been converted to service time to determine eligibility in the retirement program, shall not be recredited for such sick leave balance.

(See 1 CMC § 8301 as amended)

§ 10-20.2-645 Responsibilities

(a) The employee shall be responsible for initiating a request for leave using such forms, documentation, and explanatory material as may be required. Such request shall be initiated, sufficiently in advance so as to enable management to make the necessary staff adjustments. Management shall review all leave requests and may approve, disapprove or modify any leave request.

(b) The Personnel Officer shall be available for advice and assistance to the employees and to all management agencies in matters concerning leaves and shall be responsible for the final decision in leave disputes and interpretation and application of leave policy.

§ 10-20.2-650 Administration of the System

(a) Leave Year. For administrative convenience, leave accumulations and usages are based upon the leave year. A "leave year" is that period of 52 consecutive weeks (26 pay periods) which begins on the first day of the first full pay period of the calendar year and ends on the last day of the last pay period which ends in that calendar year. For example, if the first day of the first pay period in the new year is January 11, then the leave year ends on January 10 the following year.

(b) Employee's Right to Annual Leave. Employees have a legal right to accumulate annual leave, but the right to use that leave is contingent upon management's requirements. Thus, it is incumbent upon managers and employees to agree mutually as to the duration of annual leave and the period of taking. A manager is wholly within managerial rights to deny an employee's request for annual leave if that denial is based upon demands of the Personnel Service. The manager is obligated, in event of a denial, to suggest to the employee a more appropriate time for taking annual leave.
(c) Vacation Scheduling. The government urges and encourages employees to use annual leave for the purpose for which it is intended. That is for rest and relaxation. The government considers that a "vacation" of not less than two consecutive weeks of annual leave meets the basic intent of annual leave provisions. To avoid confusion, recriminations, disappointments, and grievances, managers are urged to schedule vacation periods for their employees, bearing in mind employees' preferences, needs and desires, so that the work force will not be unduly affected by employee absences. In event of conflict between employees over choice of a vacation period, government seniority or some other device, consistently applied, may be used to resolve such conflicts.

(d) Lump Sum Leave Payment Upon Separation. When an employee is separated from the Personnel Service, the employee is entitled to the payment of unused annual leave in a lump sum. However, lump-sum leave payment shall not be processed for an employee who has not completed the requirements of § 10-20.2-256

Re: Protocol for Disclosure of Public Records under the Open Government Act

Introduction

The government annually receives scores of requests from individuals seeking access to public records under the Open Government Act (1 CMC §§ 9901-9918) ("OGA"). Requests are addressed to the individual public offices, departments and instrumentalities ("agencies") of the Commonwealth and it is the responsibility of the agency that receives a request for public records to comply with the requirements of the OGA.

The statute does not provide a procedure for making or responding to a request for public records, however, but does provide a very technical list of specific kinds of information that are exempt from public disclosure. This often leaves recipient agencies uncertain of how to respond to an OGA request. The result is that some public records requests are neglected entirely and the government's responses to OGA requests are inconsistent as between the different agencies. The uncoordinated handling of OGA requests by individual agencies through ad hoc procedures also prevents making any assessment of the total number of requests received by the government or any statistical evaluation of requests, including the Commonwealth's compliance costs.

This memorandum is intended to provide a suggested protocol or procedure for department heads to follow when faced with a request for public records made under the OGA. The procedure relies upon prompt and effective communication between a responsible employee familiar with agency records and a central legal advisor at the Office of Attorney General. Although legal guidance is available at every step, the responsible agency employee processing the request should have a general understanding of the requirements of the OGA.

Basics of OGA Public Records Disclosure

1. Policy: The statute essentially guarantees that public records will be freely accessible to the public. Public policy requires the government to conduct its affairs in a manner that permits public scrutiny, so the records of a public agency that show official conduct or the operations of government must be made available for public inspection. All persons are entitled to full and complete information about the actions of the government and are entitled to be informed so that they can fully participate in the democratic process.
The public interest promoted by the statute is the interest of every person in knowing "what the government is doing." The statute recognizes that the public also has an interest in personal privacy and in the effective functioning of government, providing particular exemptions to the general rule of disclosure based upon these competing interests. The OGA does not recognize a personal interest on the part of a person requesting documents or any particularized interest of a public agency in withholding records. Therefore, the identity of the requester and their purpose for examining the records is irrelevant to the operation of the OGA; compliance focuses only on the correct identification and characterization of the requested records.

It is important to keep in mind the legislative purpose and public policy embodied in the Open Government Act because the statute itself provides very little guidance for making or responding to public records requests. The particular requirements for accommodating such requests can only be inferred from the sparse provisions of the statute considered together with its purpose.

2. Statutory Requirement: The CNMI's public records disclosure law is contained in only two sections of the Open Government Act, at 1 CMC §§ 9917-9918. Section 9917(a) imposes a strict duty on government agencies to make public records "available for inspection by any person during established office hours" within 10 days of a request. Subsection (b) of § 9917 requires the agency to provide copies of records to the requester on payment of a reasonable fee and also authorizes a direct action in the superior court by any person unlawfully denied access to public records.

The statute only applies to an agency's public records. A "public record" is defined as any record the agency is "required by law to keep," or which "it is necessary for the agency to keep in discharge of duties imposed by law." 1 CMC § 9902(f). This is a narrower definition of "public record" than is found in the public records laws of most states. It reflects the intention that the records to be made available by the OGA are the records that show the actions of government, and it structurally serves to minimize the number of specific exemptions that a broader definition would require.

The OGA does not define "request" and sets forth the duty of the public agency in a passive form ("shall be available"), avoiding any prescription for the proper form or manner of making or responding to a request for public records. The strict obligation to have the requested records available within 10 days of a request, however, implies the more particular duties that are necessary for its satisfaction. An agency, for example, must maintain its records in a manner that makes records accessible upon request and it must be able to activate a command and control procedure that is sufficient to accommodate the request within the prescribed time period. On the other hand, the requester must present the request in a form and manner that makes it possible for the public agency to fulfill this duty.

3. Exemptions: Section 9918(a) of the Open Government Act lists thirteen categories of records or information that are exempt from the disclosure obligation imposed by Section 9917(a). The individual exemptions are each crafted to exempt material that, if publicly disseminated, would interfere

1 For example, the Florida Public Records Act broadly defines "public records" to include all documents "made or received... in connection with the transaction of official business." Fla. Stats. § 119.011(12). The State of Washington defines "public records" as any kind of writing "relating to" the conduct of government, including its proprietary functions, which is "prepared, owned, used, or retained by any state or local agency." Rev. Code Wash. § 42.56.010(2).

Washington's Public Records Act specifically exempts from public disclosure 131 kinds of records or information and establishes a permanent committee to review and recommend additional exemptions. RCW § 42.56.140. Florida has a total of 714 exemptions to its Public Records Act: forty-four are included in the Act itself, and 670 were enacted and appear in separate legislation. By comparison, the CNMI Open Government Act contains only thirteen specific exemptions. 1 CMC § 9118(a)(1)-(13).
with one or both of the countervailing public interests mentioned above: i.e., personal privacy (including safety) or the effective functioning of government. The exemptions are not applied on the basis of these principles, however, but are strictly construed and narrowly applied according to the precise language of each exemption. Conversely, if a record falls under the literal terms of an exemption, but disclosure of the particular record would cause no actual harm to these interests, the exemption will not apply and the record must be released. 1 CMC § 9918(b).

A public record containing exempt material is not exempted from disclosure if it is possible to delete the exempt portions of the record prior to its release. § 9918(b). An agency must notify the requester if it has withheld or redacted a record on the basis of an exemption, and must cite the specific exemption and explain why it applies to the record. § 9918(d).

Procedure for Processing OGA Requests for Public Records

The head of an agency is the legal custodian of the agency’s records and agency personnel are ultimately responsible for determining what documents are responsive to each request. Neither the requester nor the assistant attorneys general who assist with the request can be expected to know what records an agency keeps or the manner in which its files are organized. Problems with the interpretation of a request—for example, whether improperly described records or an overbroad request would make it unreasonable to conduct a search—can only be resolved by applying an understanding of the statutory requirements to a knowledge of what records the agency actually possesses. Initiating and maintaining communication between the recipient agency and the Office of Attorney General is therefore essential to the effective processing of requests.

STEP ONE: Receive, Calendar and Copy

The written request must be date-stamped as received by the agency. The request must be copied and an employee familiar with agency records must be designated as the responsible contact person for processing the request. A final response date must be calendared for 10 calendar (not working) days after the date the request is received. A copy of the request must be forwarded to the Office of Attorney General. If the responsible agency employee upon initial examination of the request finds that it is unclear or presents issues that may prevent the successful processing of the request, these issues and any questions are to be communicated to the Office of Attorney General along with the delivery of a copy of the request.

STEP TWO: Identify and Locate Requested Records

The agency employee must interpret the request in light of the kinds of records that the agency keeps. Requesters rarely ask to see a specific file or a discrete record of an agency, but almost always ask for some kind of information. It is typical for requests to be written in very broad terms and often requests (usually from lawyers) appear to be demands for an excessive amount of documentary minutia (e.g., “each and every/any and all... documents, notes, letters, emails, phone logs...,” etc.). Avoid reading the request so strictly that it makes any compliance impossible. “Interpreting” a request is simply understanding or figuring out in general what information the requester is looking for, so that the existing agency records that possibly contain this information can be identified (see, IV., infra).

A search should include all records that may contain the requested information. Records that are potentially responsive to the request should be gathered without regard to whether they contain exempt material or could later be found to be outside the scope of the request. Resolve any doubts by including potentially responsive documents.
The search should begin immediately after the request is received by the agency, even when questions have been submitted about parts of the request. If the search reveals additional problems with the request or it appears that the quantity of requested records cannot be gathered within the remaining time, communicate these issues at once to the Office of Attorney General. The OAG may contact the requester, if necessary, to seek a clarification or limitation of the request, or an agreement to make records available at a later date or on an installment basis.

STEP THREE: Legal Review of Gathered Records

Once the potentially responsive records have been collected and set aside, the entire set of documents must be submitted for legal review. The OAG will review the collected records for overall responsiveness and to determine which documents or parts of documents are exempt from public disclosure. The request will be entered on a log recording the name of the requester and/or requester’s legal representative, date of receipt, the records requested, the records collected in response to the request and the dates that the records were submitted for legal review, returned to the submitting agency and made available to the requester. The OAG will promptly return the collected records to the agency with a detailed memorandum identifying each document or item within the set of records that must be withheld or redacted and explaining the statutory basis for each exemption claimed.

STEP FOUR: Finalization and Release of Records

The OAG will return the submitted set of records after segregating documents that are exempt from disclosure and specifically explaining which parts of the remaining documents require redaction. The agency must perform the actual redactions and re-copying of documents as may be required to make its records properly available to the requester.

When the necessary deletions have been completed, the agency should notify the requester and the OAG that the processing is complete and that the requested records are currently available for public examination. Public examination of the records should take place in a space provided by the agency where the requester is reasonably free from intimidation or interference but is not so private that it creates a risk of loss or damage to the records.

Summary & Further Issues

The goal is to process all requests for public records made under the Open Government Act through the Office of Attorney General where the requests will receive a centralized review. The purpose of this procedure is to provide a consistent interpretation and application of the technical requirements of the Act to enable the uniform treatment of all OGA requests that are made to government agencies. This requires some agencies to break from their existing practices of referring OGA requests to their own legal counsel or simply responding to requests without seeking any legal guidance at all.

Although the proposed procedure is simple in form, there are significant challenges to its successful implementation. Some obstacles derive from the difficulties inherent in the OGA itself. Unlike its model legislation, the OGA does not provide for its administration by establishing and authorizing disclosure personnel, creating an administrative body, or by enabling any existing agency to promulgate public disclosure regulations. In the CNMI, therefore, government agencies do not employ dedicated “disclosure specialists” who know both the law and the records of the agency.

The situation is complicated by the fact that agency record-keeping in the CNMI is not regulated and standardized to the extent that it is in the jurisdictions that supplied the model for the OGA, making the model of compliance presumed by those statutes (identifying the responsive files and retrieving them from an indexed archive) unrealistic in the Commonwealth. The absence of a public records-keeping policy in the CNMI combined with the lack of a public information-disclosure administration has the result that most of our searches for public records require what these jurisdictions would classify as an “extraordinary” or “extensive” search.¹

Moreover, the person conducting the search must make “mixed” judgments of law and fact even at the first steps of the search process. A remote legal adviser unfamiliar with the nature or state of the agency’s records can only provide general explanations of what the statute requires. The agency employee may be discouraged from proceeding with the search by uncertainty or a belief in the risk that a subsequent legal review will find that their efforts have been wasted.

Government agencies with assigned or employed legal counsel, and counsel themselves, will naturally feel a reluctance to refer OGA requests outside the agency for legal review. Attorneys working at a government agency will likely be familiar with its records and be in a better position to provide efficient assistance. An agency may find the proposed procedure cumbersome and a waste of time for simple OGA requests that raise no apparent legal questions, particularly if it routinely responds to such requests. For requests that are unproblematic or can be efficiently handled by agency counsel, there may appear to be no benefit to the agency in sending the request off for review and there will be little motivation to copy the OAG on these requests.

OGA review of public records requests has sometimes produced the opposite motivational effect as well. Agency personnel may take the general view that an OGA request is a problem—a “legal problem” in particular—presented to the agency. By delivering a copy of the request to the Office of Attorney General they may feel that they have appropriately dealt with the request by referring the “legal problem” to the lawyers to handle. Consequently, even where the request is clear on its face and no questions were raised by the agency in its notice to the OAG, the agency may take no further action on the request.

Communication and training are essential to overcoming these obstacles. The CNMI Open Government Act imposes a strict obligation on the government and provides no excuse for noncompliance. At the same time, the public records provisions of the OGA, particularly its exemptions, are difficult to interpret and there are reasonable disagreements among lawyers regarding the practical requirements of the statute.

It is important that the Commonwealth government should have one policy on the issue and respond to public records requests in a consistent manner. The majority of OGA requests are received from a few requesters who make serial requests of certain agencies or blanket requests from multiple agencies all at the same time. In any action brought by a requester to enforce the provisions of the OGA, the Commonwealth courts will liberally construe the statute in favor of the requester and strictly construe the statute against the government. The Commonwealth will be found liable if the position it has taken in ¹See, Fla. Stats. 119.07(4)(d), which provides in part that an agency may charge the requester for its labor costs in cases where the volume or nature of the records requested “is such as to require extensive use of information technology resources or extensive clerical or supervisory assistance by personnel of the agency involved.” The statute does not define “extensive.” Regulations adopted by the Florida Department of Corrections, however, incorporated the statutory language and added the following definition: “For the purpose of this rule, ‘extensive’ means that it will take more than 15 minutes to locate, review for confidential information, copy and refile the requested material.” Rule 33-1.004(3), F.A.C. The FDOC’s regulatory definition of “extensive” was upheld as reasonable by the Florida appellate court and has been followed by other state agencies. Florida Institutional Legal Services, Inc. v. Florida Dept. of Corrections, 579 So.2d 267 (Fla. 1st DCA 1991), rev. denied, 592 So.2d 680 (Fla. 1991).

response to an OGA request is concluded by the court to be incorrect; but such conclusion is inevitable if the Commonwealth has taken multiple positions in response to the same request.

It is also important to track and record the public records requests received by the individual public agencies. As noted above, the CNMI’s Open Government Act uniquely lacks provisions that would enable a government office or entity with the responsibility to manage public records disclosure. Two unremedied consequences of this omission are that: (1) Neither the Office of the Governor nor any other office or branch of the Commonwealth government knows how many or what kinds of OGA requests the government receives, the source and frequency of the requests, or the government’s success rate for satisfying requests; and (2) appropriation that could be made for the administration of an act is generally unavailable to cover the costs of simple compliance with the statute, but the “administrative” cost of diverting agency resources from agency functions to the processing of OGA requests is presumably significant and presently unknown.

Central monitoring and tracking of all OGA requests is essential to obtaining the information the Commonwealth needs to effectively manage its compliance with the Open Government Act. This will allow the Commonwealth to coordinate responses to multiple requests, prompt agencies to provide timely responses, and to assess the overall impact of the OGA on the government and make informed policy. The OGA imposes on every government agency a distinct affirmative duty different from the functional duties of each agency, but which is uniform throughout the Commonwealth. For the government to have a consistent policy with respect to its obligations under the OGA, individual agencies must refrain from developing their own interpretations of the OGA in consultation with agency counsel. The procedure proposed herein is aimed to consolidate the review of OGA requests under one roof so that separate agencies are guided by one interpretation of the statute.

CNMI Open Government Act

Protocol for Processing OGA Requests for Public Records

STEP ONE: Receive, Calendar and Copy the Request

- Stamp the request with the date received and scan it to make a record.
- Deliver the request to the employee responsible for coordinating the department’s response.
- Record ten (10) calendar days from the date of receipt as the last possible date for compliance.
- Forward a copy of the request to the Office of Attorney General. Include any initial questions or issues that you may have regarding the request.

STEP TWO: Identify and Locate Requested Records

- Begin immediately to look for the requested records, even if there are questions about the request. The government office that receives an OGA request is the one responsible for providing a response to the request and this must be done within 10 days.
- Analyze the request to determine what kind of information the requester is looking for and then consider what kinds of records there are which could contain this information.
- Collect all records that are potentially responsive to the request. If there are doubts about a particular document, include that document as well. If there are doubts about a particular class of documents and it would require an extensive effort to collect documents of that kind, contact the Office of Attorney General for instructions.
- Assemble the potentially responsive records in the form that they would be presented to the requester. Deliver the records to the Office of Attorney General for legal review.

STEP THREE: Legal Review of Collected Records

- The collected records are examined for actual responsiveness and to determine which documents or parts of documents are exempt from public disclosure.
- The set of records are returned with a memorandum indicating the documents to be released or withheld and any redactions to be made, citing the legal basis for each nondisclosure.

STEP FOUR: Finalization and Release of Records

- Perform any redactions as instructed by the means that are most feasible.
- Contact the requester to schedule a time and location for examining the records. Copy the Office of Attorney General with this communication and any subsequent communications with the requester.
B. Public Records Provisions of the CNMI Open Government Act

COMMONWEALTH CODE
TITLE 1: GOVERNMENT
DIVISION 9 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 9901. Legislative Declaration.

The legislature finds and declares that all public commissions, boards, councils, committees, subcommittees, departments, divisions, offices, and all other public agencies of this Commonwealth exist to aid in the conduct of the peoples business. It is the intent of this chapter that their actions be taken openly and that their deliberations be conducted openly.

The people of the Commonwealth do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them. The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know. The people insist on remaining informed so that they may retain control over the instruments they have created.

The provisions requiring open meetings and open records shall be liberally construed, and the provisions providing for exceptions to the open meeting requirements and open records requirements shall be strictly construed against closed meetings and nondisclosure of records.

§ 9902. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(e) Public agency means:

* * *

(1) Any Commonwealth board, commission, committee, department, education institution, or other Commonwealth agency which is created by or pursuant to statute, constitution, or the Covenant, except the judiciary;

(2) Any municipality or political subdivision of the Commonwealth; and

(3) Any subagency of a public agency which is created by or pursuant to statute, ordinance, or other legislative act.

(f) Public record means any record which a public agency is required by law to keep or which it is necessary to keep in discharge of duties imposed by law. Such public records may include, but are not limited to, any written or printed report, book or paper, map or plan, but shall not include records which invade the right of privacy of an individual or business entity.

A persons right to privacy, right of privacy, or personal privacy, as these terms are used in this chapter, and as guaranteed by N.M.I. Const. art. I, § 10, is invaded or violated when an intrusion into an individual's right of privacy is beyond what is necessary to accomplish a compelling governmental interest in protecting the health, safety or welfare of the community. For the purposes of this chapter, protecting the health, safety or welfare of the community includes, but is not limited to, enforcing laws, protecting the health of the people, and permitting the dissemination of public information.

§ 9913. Legislative Branch: Applicability.

The public records of the Legislative Bureau shall be subject to 1 CMC 9917. Any request to make a public record available for inspection or copying pursuant to 1 CMC 9917 shall be subject to the exemptions listed in 1 CMC 9918.

§ 9915. Violations: Personal Liability Penalty; Attorney Fees and Costs.

(a) * * *

(b) Any person who prevails against a public agency in any action of the courts for a violation of this chapter shall be awarded all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred in connection with such legal action. Any public agency which prevails in any action in the courts for a violation of this chapter may be awarded reasonable expenses and attorney fees upon final judgment and written findings by the trial judge that the action was frivolous and advanced without reasonable cause.

§ 9916. Violations: Mandamus or Injunction.

(a) Any person may commence an act either by mandamus or injunction for the purpose of stopping violations or preventing threatened violations of this chapter by members of a governing body.

(b) Accelerated Hearing: Immediate Compliance.

(1) Whenever an action is filed to enforce the provisions of this section, the court shall set an immediate hearing, giving the case priority over other pending cases.

(2) Whenever a court orders an agency to open its records for inspection in accordance with this section, the agency shall comply with such order within 48 hours, unless otherwise provided by the court issuing such order, or unless the appellate court issues a stay order within such 48 hour period.

(3) A stay order shall not be issued unless the court determines that there is a substantial probability that opening the records for inspection will result in significant damage.

(4) Upon service of a complaint, counterclaim, or cross-claim in a civil action brought to enforce the provisions of this section, the custodian of the public record that is the subject matter of such civil action shall not transfer custody, alter, destroy, or otherwise dispose of the public record sought to be inspected and examined, notwithstanding the applicability of an exemption or the assertion that the requested record is not a public record subject to inspection and examination under 1 CMC 9918, until the court directs otherwise. The person who has custody of such public record may, however, at any time permit inspection of the requested record as provided in 1 CMC 9918 and other provisions of law.
§ 9917. Public Records: Availability for Inspection; Cost of Copies.

(a) Within 10 days of a request, all public records shall be available for inspection by any person during established office hours unless public inspection of such records is in violation of any Commonwealth or federal law; provided that, except where such records are open under any rule of court, the Commonwealth Attorney General or designated assistant attorney general and the responsible attorneys for federal agencies may determine which such records in their offices may be withheld from public inspection when such records pertain to the preparation of the prosecution or defense of any action or proceeding, prior to its commencement, to which the Commonwealth is a party, or when such records do not relate to a matter in violation of law and are deemed necessary for the protection of the character or reputation of any person.

(b) Copies of public records shall be given by the officer having custody to any person demanding the same and paying a reasonable charge for duplication. Charges shall not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the agency for its actual cost incident to such copying. No charge or fee shall be charged for the mere inspection of public records. Recourse may be had to the Commonwealth Superior Court by any person unlawfully denied access to public records. Cost of suit and reasonable attorney fees shall be awarded to the prevailing party in such a suit.

(c) Penalties. Any public officer who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a noncriminal infraction, punishable by a fine not exceeding $500. Any person willfully and knowingly violating any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a term of imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine of up to $1,000, or both.

§ 9918. Certain Personal and Other Records Exempt.

(a) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(1) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(2) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency other than names, present and past position titles, grades, salaries and duty stations.

(3) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax.

(4) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative law enforcement, the Attorney Generals office, penology agencies and Commonwealth agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any persons right to privacy.

(5) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with or volunteer information to investigative agencies, law enforcement agencies, the Attorney Generals office, of penology agencies, if disclosure would endanger the persons life, physical safety, or property; provided, that if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern.

(6) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(7) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memoranda, including lawyers work product and lawyer legal opinions in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended, except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(8) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the courts.

(9) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological and specially protected environmental sites in order to avoid the looting, destruction or degradation of such sites.

(10) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(11) The residential addresses and residential telephone numbers of the customers of a public utility contained in the records or lists held by the public utility of which they are customers.

(12) Juvenile, delinquency or dependency records, and any personal information which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of, or otherwise could identify to the public, a juvenile who is the victim or alleged victim of a violent or abusive crime, including but not limited to rape, sexual molestation of any degree, or assault and battery.

(13) Department of Public Safety internal investigation records.

(b) The exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that the information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(c) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the Commonwealth Superior Court finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary; to protect any individuals right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(d) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part thereof) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

[END OF CHAPTER]
Responding to OGA Requests for Public Records

The “Public Records” sections of the Open Government Act only requires government agencies to make public records “available for inspection by any person during established office hours” within 10 days of a request, and to provide copies of records to the requester on payment of a copying fee. 9 CMC § 9917(a), (b). A “public record” is any record the agency is “required by law to keep,” or which it is necessary for the agency to keep “in discharge of duties imposed by law.” § 9902(f).

The OGA only applies to records already in existence at the time of a request. It is inappropriate for an agency employee to generate a new record in response to a request. The agency’s obligation in responding to a request is to identify which of the records in its custody may contain the information sought by the requester and to make these available for inspection. Agency personnel are required to make every reasonable effort to search for records that are responsive to a request, but are not required to research the records to provide answers to questions or to compile a new document or file.

Often, the individuals making OGA requests do not understand the nature of the government’s basic obligation under the Act. The agency is commonly asked to answer topical questions or to provide explanations for government policy or actions and the requester will sometimes ask the agency to report back in a prescribed format. Requesters typically frame their requests in terms of “all information on...” or “all files showing...” or “related to...,” followed by a reference to a newsworthy individual, a stated issue of current public concern, or even to a legal conclusion (e.g., “...the government’s breach of fiduciary duty.”). Although such requests are overly broad and go well beyond the demand to view an existing public record, they should not be rejected on this basis.

A person requesting access to public records cannot be expected to know the format in which the records are kept or the filing system of the particular agency. On receiving a written request, the first step required of the custodian of records is to interpret the request as one made under the OGA. This means examining the written request, however it may be phrased, to find anything that may be translated into a request to see specific records. The “information” sought through the request is relevant only for the purpose of identifying the record or set of records that contain the information, so these records may be located and made available. The OGA does not require the compilation of data the agency does not ordinarily keep.

The custodian of records will not be able to take even this first step in cases of certain improper requests, particularly those requiring the records clerk to interpret the documents in the public records. An example is where the request is for all documents “used for,” “which support,” “demonstrating,” “verifying,” or “justifying” some stated fact or conclusion. The identification and gathering of records according to these criteria would require the custodian to exercise his or her own judgment as to the meaning, prior use and relative importance of various items within the public record. The custodian’s delivery of records on this basis could be regarded as an admission of the agency’s position regarding the issue posed by the requester.
The OGA prescribes no format or procedure for making requests. Other than setting a 10-day response period and requiring the copying of documents for a fee, the OGA prescribes no procedures for government bodies to follow when responding to a request. 9 CMC § 9917(a), (b). A proper request and a proper response from the agency, therefore, are determined by the test of reasonableness in relation to fulfilling the terms and policy of the OGA. In states with similar public records laws, and under the federal Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), a proper request for public records must contain: (1) a request for records; and (2) a reasonable description of the records sought, which must be sufficient to enable an agency employee familiar with the records to locate the requested records with a reasonable amount of effort.

A request that is either vague or so broadly stated that the clerk would have to guess which records are responsive to the request or would require the clerk to spend hours fishing through agency files to locate the responsive documents is not a proper request because it fails to "reasonably describe" the records sought. This kind of request, however, should be distinguished from one that is simply burdensome. A request is sufficient in form if it describes the records sought with enough clarity to permit the records to be located with reasonable effort; it does not matter that the identifiable records are voluminous. In some cases, courts have upheld a government agency's refusal to conduct an unreasonably burdensome search for specifically described records, but the general rule is that a person is entitled to access all non-exempt public records maintained by the agency without regard to the quantity of documents requested.

Sometimes a request that appears to be overly burdensome is in reality just vague. Requesters often feel compelled to describe every possible type of documentary minutia that they want the custodian to look for and they may even include explicit search instructions. Examples are requests for "all letters, 'post-its,' e-mails, personal notes, journal entries... [etc.]" or "documents segregated by each office in which they are located and containing the words 'casino' and 'board' but not "Tinian."" These statements are superfluous and do not affect the steps that the agency must take to make its public records available. Because the OGA defines a "public record" by its function, whatever its written form, a long list of many kinds of writings adds nothing to the scope or quantity of public records requested. There is no obligation to follow the requester's instructions, look for particular forms of writings, or to do anything other than allow the requester access to the "public records" (not "documents") specified in the request. Insofar as the request is made in terms of "document-types" or "manner of search," it neglects to describe an identifiable public record and to this extent it is vague.

The second step to be taken by the custodian at this point depends upon whether or not the particular request is proper; i.e., whether it can be fairly interpreted as a request to view reasonably described public records that are under the control of the agency. If the writing appears to be an OGA request, but is truly insufficient in this respect, the custodian should respond in writing to the requester with a notation as to each deficiency in the request that prevents the government from complying. Courts have held that government agencies have an implied duty under public records laws to assist requesters in reformulating their requests to clarify the scope of the request and to facilitate the requester's designation of the relevant public records according to the manner in which they are kept by the agency. A response seeking clarification from an OGA requester must not appear dismissive or defensive in tone, but should be genuinely aimed at helping the person to locate the information they are seeking.
If the request is sufficiently stated, the custodian’s second step is to review the agency’s records to correlate the items of information or kinds of documents described in the request with the content of the actual records as they are actually kept, so that specific records matching the requester’s criteria can be located. It is expected that an agency employee with responsibility for maintaining the records will have an organizational knowledge sufficient to identify the kinds of files or other repositories which contain the requested public records. If there are no responsive records because the public records are actually the records of another department or agency, the request should be referred with this explanation to the other department or agency with a copy of the referral sent to the requester.

The initial correlation of the items requested with the contents of the agency’s actual files and records may show that the requested documents are disbursed among a broad range of files, incorporated within larger documents and records, or may only exist in an unorganized and non-indexed form within the entirety of the agency’s public records. In this event, as always, the adequacy of the search effort is determined by the test of what is reasonable. There is no requirement to search through all record systems or to manually sift through all documents in the possession of the agency. The fundamental objective is to provide public access to public records, not to provide personal research services for private individuals.

The search is reasonable if there is a good faith attempt to locate the relevant records by methods which can be reasonably expected to produce the information requested. An attempt is in “good faith” when the search is conducted in the same manner and to the same extent as would be done if the agency were looking for the same records to fulfill its own purposes. One difference, however, is that the search for OGA purposes is limited to finding the relevant public records so they may be inspected; it is not for the purpose of pulling the various documents from their prior location within the public records and reassembling these into a new record. The existing public records must not be reformatted or reorganized in response to an OGA request.

When the request calls for an extraordinary search effort, it is reasonable to respond to the requester with an explanation of the practical difficulties involved in locating the requested items and to possibly offer a suggestion for reformulating the request or for realistically accommodating the requester’s own examination of a large quantity of records. Frequently, the request is for all records containing a person’s name or a certain type of document. Where the agency’s records are not organized or indexed by these identifiers and an excessively time-consuming manual search would be required, the custodian should propose a means by which the most generally relevant records may be made available for the requester’s own search.

An objective “cut-off point” beyond which employee time spent on a search would be excessive is impossible to specify for all cases. This judgment will turn on the distinctive problem presented by the request, the function and organization of the recipient government entity, its system of records and the degree to which the search process interferes with its other operational duties. However, where the public records law of Florida permitted an agency to charge the requester for the full labor costs of performing an “extensive” search, that state’s courts upheld a regulation defining “extensive” to mean “that it will take more than 15 minutes to locate, review for confidential information, copy and refile the requested material.” On the other hand, courts will reject any claim that a search is excessively burdensome if the difficulty is traceable to the agency’s failure to maintain appropriate records in an accessible form. If the latter consideration is not the issue, my rule-of-thumb for OGA requests is that employees should not be required to spend longer than 30 minutes per request searching for records.
Public records include all those stored on electronic media. The principles governing the availability of public records generally under the OGA also apply to computer records. In application, however, the accessibility of electronically stored data and the method for making electronically stored public records available for inspection raise practical issues concerning the agency's proper response to a request. A "public record" is a record that the agency is legally required to keep or which is necessary for its function, and it must already be in existence when the request is made. Printing an electronic record or making redacted copies of documents, however, is not considered to be "creating a new record," provided the contents of the records are unaltered.

Under the OGA, a person has the right to examine on request all of the non-exempt public records that a government agency keeps. The only limitation on such a request, implied by law, is that it be presented in a form and manner that reasonably permits practical compliance by the government. Because an agency cannot hand over all of its records at once, a request for "all of your records" is unreasonable in scope. The request is too vague because it fails to specify any particular records that are capable of being retrieved, or examined, at one time.

Requests approaching this level of generality will usually be too vague to process. In the context of the Freedom of Information Act, federal regulations cite requests for "all records concerning my client" or "all records containing my name" as examples of requests that must be rejected as vague under FOIA. But these are regulations promulgated by individual agencies on the basis of their particular and well-defined records systems. For OGA purposes, the question of the sufficiency of the request should always be determined in light of what records are actually available, not by a simple comparison with these examples. If the custodian is aware that the agency possesses only one discrete and easily retrievable public record that concerns the requester, it would be improper to deny the requester's request for "all records concerning me" on the ground that the request is vague.

Because the sufficiency of a request for public records is tied to the practical feasibility of retrieving records based upon the request, an agency that keeps records in a searchable electronic database may be required to respond to a request that would legitimately be rejected as too vague to process by another agency that lacked these resources. Assuming even that the two agencies kept the same records, the request could sufficiently describe the identifiable public records of one agency but not the other, due solely to the different modes of recordkeeping used by the respective agencies.

The recipient of an OGA request, prior to rejecting the request or embarking upon a search for records, must interpret the request to discover whether the requester is properly seeking public records which exist in some identifiable form within the agency's records. It seems inescapable that a reasonable interpretation of the request must be grounded in knowledge of the agency's records. This element is problematic insofar as the analysis is made subjective and it becomes difficult for the custodian to solicit the benefit of legal opinion on the matter. It is unavoidable, however, because the test of reasonableness that measures the sufficiency of the request can only be applied in relation to the agency receiving the request.

MEMORANDUM

TO: ALL EMPLOYEES

FROM: Attorney General

SUBJECT: Travel Policy

It has become necessary that a written policy on official travel be established for the smooth processing and compliance with requirements set by the Department of Finance and the Office of the Governor. By putting a policy in place, it will lessen the burden on the Administrative Section and other agencies of rushing unplanned travel requests.

As a general rule, all requests for official travel must be concurred by the Division Chiefs and approved by the Attorney General or the Deputy Attorney General in my absence. Requests must state the purpose and dates of travel. Upon approval, the request will be forwarded to the Administrative Section for processing.

Please be advised that has been the Government’s policy that official travels outside the CNMI be submitted three to four weeks in advance and inter-island travels one week in advance. I realize that there may be exceptions beyond the control of this office but proper planning on all other cases should be observed.

Additionally, upon the completion of travel, employees are required to complete and submit a Travel Voucher, a form provided by the Department of Finance. In addition, the traveler must submit to the Attorney General with a copy to the Division Chiefs, a report regarding the nature of the travel performed. The report must be submitted no later than 10 business days from the date of return.

Your cooperation to this policy is appreciated.
DIRECTIVE

TO: All Department and Activity Heads
FROM: Governor
SUBJ: Procedures for Official Travel

In order to attain a more consistent, effective, and efficient travel operation, I have included herein the new procedures for all official travel. I am urging that all department and activity heads inform, and more importantly, educate your employees of these new changes and requirements which will become effective on November 14, 1994. They are as follows:

TRAVEL AUTHORIZATIONS (TAs)

All TAs are to be submitted to the Travel Section in the Office of the Special Assistant for Administration (SAA). As previously stated in my memorandum dated February 22, 1994, the Travel Section is responsible for arranging ALL travel reservations and for purchasing ALL airline tickets (a few exceptions are set forth in the memorandum). In addition, the following procedures shall be followed:

1. All TA forms must be fully completed and submitted to the Travel Section along with all supporting documents including, but not limited to, programs, itinerary, and agenda, pertaining to the purpose of travel. Departments, agencies and allocated units are advised to fully screen and finalize TAs before they are submitted to the Travel Section. The TAs must include the social security number of the traveler.

2. Any type of fee associated with the purpose of travel should be included on the TA; for example, a registration fee for a conference, training, seminar, car rental and land transportation.

3. Any TA that is requested for travelers whose destination requires a flight of five hours or more (point to point), one way, may be accommodated by the Government in flying Business Class or other comparable class. TAs requested for travelers whose destination requires less than five (5) hours will be provided with Economy Class or other comparable class.

4. Any TA that is requested for travel beyond the CNMI, as opposed to inter-island, must be submitted three to four weeks in advance. Any inter-island TA must be submitted one week in advance. The Travel Section and/or the Department of Finance will not be responsible for rushing the processing of any TA in order to meet the travel date.

5. After-the-fact TA requests must be submitted, with justification, to the Governor for review and approval.

6. Outstanding Travel Advance: A Traveler with an outstanding travel advance shall not be authorized an additional travel advance unless a travel voucher has been submitted clearing all previous travel advance or, unless the traveler was required to travel within two weeks or less from the last travel performed.
PER DIEM

The amount of per diem allowable for individual traveler varies by destination, and is calculated based on the following fixed scale:

1. Within the CNMI  $85.00/day
2. Guam $175.00/day
3. U.S. Mainland (excluding Hawaii, California, New York and Washington, D.C.) $200.00/day
4. Hawaii, California, New York and Washington, D.C. $250.00/day
5. Far East and Southeast Asia $200.00/day
6. Japan $275.00/day
7. FSM, Palau, and Marshalls $125.00/day

Per diem rates for regions not shown herein will be calculated based on the previously established rates.

GOVERNMENT TRAVEL REQUESTS (GTRs)

GTRs will no longer be picked up at the Department of Finance by the traveler or the department/agency. The authority to issue GTRs is hereby transferred to the SAA. A traveler or department/agency will pick up a ticket at the Travel Section in the Office of the SAA.

In addition, the following changes have been made on the GTR forms:

1. GTRs will indicate the remarks, "Tickets cannot be Reissued or Re-routed". Once the tickets are issued to the traveler or the department/agency, NO changes can be made.
2. GTRs will clearly indicate that any Upgrading of Class assignment will be at the traveler's expense, not the Government's.
3. The last statement of Condition #1 on the present GTR will be deleted because it provides a loophole for the flexibility of change in the GTR.
4. All GTR forms will indicate the name of the Carrier or Y Travel Agent tendered to. This will ensure that all Travel Agencies on the island are equally patronized by the Government.

TRAVEL VOUCHERS (TVs)

As stated in the CNMI-FN-206-76, the filing of a TV is mandatory when funds for per diem and other expenses, honorarium, travel allowance have been obligated on a TA. I emphasize that, for more effective compliance with this rule, department and activity heads will also be held accountable for the filing of TVs by their employees. Therefore, travelers should be aware that it is their responsibility to prepare and submit TVs, complete with social security number, within 15 days after the completion of their travel.

In cases where a travel advance is issued to a traveler, a traveler's non-filling of a TV, within the 15 days grace period will result in the issuance of a notice to the traveler by the Finance Department. A traveler's failure to file a TV within 10 days after the 15 days grace period will authorize the Finance Department to make a payroll deduction for that certain individual. Please be aware that this notice is also indicated in the Travel Advance forms.

UNUSED TICKETS

If your trip is canceled after a TA is prepared, fill out the Traveler Information portion of the TV. In the Itinerary section of the TV, please print "Trip was canceled". If you received a travel advance check but did not cash it, write the word "VOID" in large letters across the face of the check and attach it with the TA to the voucher. If you have an unused GTR, write "CANCELED" across the face of it and submit it with a TV. If you have any unused airline tickets, please turn them in with the original TA and the TV to the Department of Finance, Finance & Accounting Division. DO NOT WRITE ON THE TICKETS. All unused tickets must be accompanied by a report justifying the trip cancellation.

LOST/STOLEN TICKETS

It is the responsibility of the traveler and the department/agency for the security of a ticket once it is issued by the Travel Section. The traveler is responsible for informing the Travel Section/SAA of any lost/stolen ticket. Any fees involved in the retrieving process is at the expense of the traveler.

After verification of lost/stolen tickets, a Journal Voucher to the account for the lost ticket will be made by the Department of Finance, and a new GTR will be issued for the procurement of another ticket.

NORTHWEST AIRLINES TRAVEL

Discussions with Northwest Airlines have resulted in the successful negotiation of a discount fare for all travel on official business. This discounted fare will result in substantial savings for the Government. As a result of the agreement entered into with Northwest, the Government must coordinate its travel arrangement. Therefore, each Government traveler must clear through the Travel Section/SAA all reservations and the issuance of travel tickets. You may not contact a travel agency to make Government travel arrangements. We are continuing discussions with Continental Micronesia and United Airlines.

It is very important for the viability of this improved travel operation that we work together in adhering to these new procedures. The Lt. Governor and I believe that, once they are put into practice, the government will be providing a more cost effective and efficient travel operation.

Thank you for your cooperation.
